Delays Faced In Congress Adjournment

Ike's Program Hitting Snags; Chances Hurt To Make Target Date

WASHINGTON (AP) — Plans for congressional leaders to wind up the present session within two weeks today faced a threat of foundering on four disputed items in President Eisenhower's program: tax and Atomic Energy Act revision, housing and farm programs.

A belief was growing that it might require at least a week of August to clear the decks for adjournment which would free members to concentrate on the election campaign.

The Senate spent four long days last week debating the administration bill to revise the Atomic Energy Act. It was called back two hours early today with the end not yet in sight.

Major Issue

The major issue: Should Congress act to cancel an Eisenhower directive for the Atomic Energy Commission to contract with a private utility group for power in the Tennessee Valley Authority area. A small band of Democrats, with the support of several Republicans is leading a fight for such a move.

Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) says he plans to move tomorrow for a Senate vote on his proposal to censure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) for his conduct as chairman of the Senate Investigations subcommittee. That seems likely to divert the Senate from its legislative work for most of the day, and perhaps longer.

A Senate-House conference committee finished work Friday on a compromise housing bill, from which it stripped Senate provisions to carry out the President's program for building 35,000 public housing units a year for four years. The compromise contains authority for 37,000 units in one year, with occupancy limited to families dispossessed by slum clearance projects.

Rejection Possible

Moves to reject the compromise are regarded as likely in both branches. In the House, opponents of public housing probably will try to knock out even the revised provision. In the Senate, friends of public housing will try to send the measure back to conference to restore the four-year program.

A tax revision bill which Eisenhower calls the keystone of his program is still in a conference committee. The group made remarkable progress last week in resolving differences, but the knottiest issue remains. It involves JANE MARIE HOFFMAN, 6, alleged pawn of a New York barroom "adoption," is shown in Boston after FBI agents found her with Mrs. Betty (Toni) Johnson, of Chicago. The child vanished from the Florida-bound truck of Walter H. Hicks Jr., of Sulphur Springs, Fla., after he asked "Toni" to watch her. Hicks said he had "adopted" Jane in a New York waterfront tavern where he met her mother, Mrs. Blanche Whitted. The notarized "adoption" document was written on a menu.

Has 36 Hours To Go; Slight Chance Seen

Canada, India, Poland Proposed as Armistice Policing Commission

GENEVA (AP) — French Premier Pierre Mendes-France went today into the final 36 hours of his diplomatic duel with the Communists for peace in Indochina with what a British spokesman described as "a chance, that's all."

Another Western official said he wouldn't even bet on the proposition. The top Communist delegates here kept to themselves.

One Obstacle Removed

One high conference source said Mendes-France had pushed away one obstacle to peace in a tentative fashion—the long debated question of the International Commission to police the armistice. This source said the French and the Communists seem to have settled the composition of the commission with Canada, India, and Poland as the members. There would be last minute changes, it was emphasized.

The British, it was reported, will support Mendes-France on this composition. The position of the United States has not been made known. In the past the United States has opposed the inclusion of any Communist states on the commission because of the unhappy results in Korea, where Czechoslovakia and Poland hampered operations of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission with their veto power.

Only in Draft Form

Under the tentative agreement reached by Mendes-France and the Communists, decisions would have to be taken by unanimous vote on any issues which might lead to the resumption of hostilities. Otherwise a simple majority would decide. The conference source emphasized that the agreement was not in its final form.

Progress also was reported unofficially on the question of elections in Viet Nam after the armistice. There were reports the Communists were ready to accept a delay of 18 months. Earlier they had asked for a vote on a new government within six months. The French originally asked for a two-year delay.

There was little doubt that Viet Nam was going to be partitioned somewhere between the 14th and 18th Parallels.

Viet Nam Bitter

A Viet Namese spokesman said sadly today "there will be a partition and we realize we cannot avoid it."

He said his government still clung to its demand for U. N. supervision of the armistice, but that the issue would be decided "over our heads." He complained again that the Vietnamese "are kept in ignorance of whatever happens."

A high American source said it will be very difficult for the Communists to turn down the offer made by Mendes-France and "still make it appear they want peace."

Red Probe Reopened

Witness Ousted After He Tangles With McCarthy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) began public hearings today on his repeated charges of 130-odd subversives in defense plants and ran into a stormy clash with a man named as one of them. It wound up with McCarthy's having the man removed from the hearings room.

Yelling about informers and stool pigeons, Charles Wojchowski was hauled out by a Capitol policeman acting on McCarthy's orders.

Wojchowski had been identified as a Red by James W. Glatis of Boston, who testified he himself had joined the Communist party as an FBI undercover man.

McCarthy interrupted Glatis' testimony to inquire if Wojchowski were in the room. A short, stocky young man in grey slacks and dark grey jacket came forward. The senator asked if he would like to be sworn in as a witness so he could affirm or deny whether he was a Red.

Wojchowski shouted: "I'd like to know what the charges are, who the accusers are. I'd like to have time to prepare."

He said a telegram practically convicting him had been sent to his employer and had just about cost him his job.

"I don't know who the stool pigeons and informers are," Wojchowski said.

McCarthy said, "You are not go-

French Union Troops Seize Vietminh Base

Reds Driven Out of Supply Depot 18 Miles Northwest of Hanoi

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — Some 5,000 French Union troops, spearheaded by tanks, pushed mopup operations today against a Vietminh guerrilla base only 18 miles northwest of Hanoi. The French reported 28 rebels killed and 13 captured in the push, which met only slight opposition.

A spokesman said 215 rebels were killed early yesterday when a rebel battalion charged into French tanks, machine gun and rifle fire north of Hung Yen while attacking a small village.

Fire at Close Range

French gunners had been expecting the attack. They opened fire when the rebels were less than 10 yards away, forcing the enemy to flee.

French losses were described as "very light."

Night-flying B26 bombers ranged the northern and southwestern borders of the Red River delta last night, pounding Vietminh bases and ammunition dumps.

A French spokesman said more than 70 tons of explosives were unloaded on bases stretching from Yen Bay, 75 miles northwest of Hanoi, to Phun Hoquan, 45 miles south of Hanoi, and on a string of small munition dumps between Tuyen Quang and Thai Nguyen, 50 miles northwest of the war capital.

Hit Rebel Bases

Other planes hit rebel guerrilla bases inside French defense lines, about 25 miles south, west and north of Hanoi.

Here in Hanoi, between 2,000 and 3,000 Vietnamese gathered in front of the opera house today for a brief demonstration against any partition of their country by the Geneva conference.

After cheering several short speeches, a delegation handed U.S. Consul Turner Cameron a petition addressed to President Eisenhower, because "we just wanted the President and people of America to know our position."

Solves Water Shortage

HALTOM CITY, Tex. (AP)—City officials solved the water shortage easily yesterday. They simply shut off the water.

The cutoff was ordered when citizens were found watering their lawns despite an ordinance prohibiting it.

The city was without water from 1 to 4 p.m.

Caledonia Youth Second

Whitman Will Represent Marion in Akron Finals

Marion's Soap Box Derby title remained in LaRue as Bobby Whitman triumphed in the 1954 version of the eighth annual race here Saturday afternoon.

The 14-year-old LaRue youth outcoasted 69 other entrants in the Class A and B divisions for the crown won by LaRue's Phillip Blue last year.

HIS COMPETITION in the derby final came from another youth from the county, Darrell Fyffe of Caledonia, who won the Class B laurels with four heat wins. Whitman won Class A honors after winning four races in that division.

Whitman's time as he nosed out Fyffe for the 1954 derby championship was 28.6 over the 1,000 feet S. Main St. course.

Whitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans of LaRue, had entered the Marion Lions Club derby here last year, losing out in the second heat.

—:—

A FRESHMAN at LaRue High School, he was sponsored by Thew and Son Chevrolet Garage of LaRue. He has worked on his racer ever since school was out.

Whitman had two brothers racing in the derby but they didn't fare well. David lost in the first heat while Charles won one heat before losing.

Fyffe, who entered the derby for the first time Saturday, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fyffe of Caledonia. An eighth grader at Caledonia High School, he is 12 years old and was sponsored by the Farm & Home Lumber Co. of Caledonia. He began building his racer six weeks before the derby.

Whitman and Fyffe, along with the rest of the derby participants, were to be feted at the Lions Club noon luncheon at Hotel Harding today.

To Whitman goes the Keating trophy for winning the local derby and a trip to Akron next month for the national Soap Box Derby.

Near-Record Heat Continues In Much of U.S.

237 Deaths Recorded As Middle Section of U.S., West Swelters

By The Associated Press

Hot weather continued at full boil in the nation's middle section today after a brief period of simmer late last week. There was little relief in sight.

The toll of the extended heat wave, which had only a brief respite, had reached 237 lives yesterday when temperatures from central Texas and northern Louisiana to southwestern North Dakota climbed generally into 100-plus figures.

Scattered thunderstorms tempered the heat in the Ohio Valley and near the Canadian border, but west and south of those sections temperatures matched or exceeded the normal summer extremes of the adjoining desert Southwest.

Sunday deaths attributable to the heat included 3 at Fort Smith, Ark., where the mercury mounted to 108; 3 in southern California, where readings ranged up to more than 100 in the San Joaquin Valley; and 5 in Oklahoma, which had such steaming weather as Oklahoma City's 105 and Tulsa's 110.

The day's peak was 116 at Fort Scott, Kan. Chanute in the same state had 113.

Seven Injured In Weekend's Auto Mishaps

Five Hurt in Crash Near Marion; Police List Nine Accidents

A warning to motorists in the area to exercise more caution while driving on county roads was issued today by Cpl. D. M. DeWalt, commander of the Marion post of the state highway patrol. The warning came after seven persons were injured in three accidents on Marion County roads over the weekend.

One other county accident, on State Route 203, was reported by patrolmen. Police reported nine accidents on city streets with two persons receiving slight injuries. Four of the accidents involved damage of less than $100.

Five persons, including three children were injured when the car in which they were riding ran into a tree lying across the pavement on County Road 68, one and one-tenth miles north of State Route 231, Sunday at 9:15 p.m.

Patrolmen report the car was driven by Charles E. Farr, 69, of near Morral. The vehicle struck the fallen tree, then went across the road into a ditch. The top and right side of the car were demolished by the impact.

Bleeds for 13 Days

Blood Brigade Attempts To Save Middletown Boy

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Townsfolk formed a blood brigade today to save the life of 6-year-old Eddie Phillips, who has been bleeding steadily since his tonsils were removed 13 days ago.

His unnamed disease, a certain deficiency in the blood, prevents the blood from clotting. He needs fresh blood and direct transfusions. Stored blood will not do.

This industrial city of 34,000 in southwest Ohio has responded with hundreds of offers of transfusions. More than 40 pints of blood have been pumped into the youngster already.

Spirits Good

Eddie's physician said the boy was in critical condition but his spirits were good.

The bleeding is centered in the throat and a tube has been inserted below it to allow him to take in oxygen. This prevents Eddie from talking, but he cheerfully shakes his head yes or no when questions are put to him.

The doctor said the youngster was not suffering from hemophilia, a similar disease which makes people bleed when slightly wounded. The doctor said it was a strange, unnamed malady. The blood is deficient in one element one day and another element the next day.

Follows Surgery

Before Eddie underwent the tonsilectomy, his blood was tested. The noncoagulation showed up after surgery.

Mrs. Ruth Jones, secretary of the Presbyterian Church, said the first appeal for type O blood brought 180 offers from private citizens. One industrial plant, Armco, reported 417 employes ready to donate blood for the boy.

"The response is just out of this world," said Mrs. Jones, who has been accepting offers of blood for Eddie.

Goodrich Plant Workers Take Vote on Strike

Members of the United Rubber Workers Union in Marion today were engaged in a vote to determine whether they should go on strike if negotiations now in progress with the B. F. Goodrich Co. break down.

The union has given the 60-day notice of intention to strike as required by law. That 60-day period will expire within the next week.

The company announced it was offering the workers a five-cent an hour general wage increase beginning as soon as the settlement has been reached. Between 175 and 180 persons are employed at the local Goodrich plant located near Green Camp, west of Marion, 150 of whom would be affected in case of strike.

The company is offering an increase of five cents an hour in incentive base pay besides the general wage increase. Company spokesmen said they felt an increase of three cents an hour only was justified, but said they were offering the five cents to keep in line with offers made by other plants in the industry.

This source said that if the Communists block Mendes-France's bid they will lose tremendous ground in their effort to win Asia for the Chinese, particularly in India and Burma.

It was reported U.S. Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith's statement of the U.S. position at yesterday's session of the conference had aroused no objections from the Communist side. Smith stated the United States was prepared to help in arriving at a just and honorable peace and that it would honor its obligations under the U. N. charter in the event of an agreement.

Mendes-France saw Vietnamese Foreign Minister Tran Van Do early today and then went to see British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden. He conferred with Bedell Smith later and planned to dine with Eden tonight. The lease on Mendes - France's villa expires Wednesday and there was every indication he was prepared to move out, in or out of office.

Suffers Lacerations

He received slight lacerations above the nose, contusions of the right cheek, and abrasions of the right knee. Patrolmen report his car went off the road on the right side as he was headed north, swerved across the pavement and went into a ditch on the left side, demolishing the right side and front end of the car.

Two Prospect drivers were arrested as the result of the fourth accident reported by patrolmen. It was a three-car mishap on State Route 203 about one mile north of Prospect.

According to patrolmen, a car driven by Carlton E. Hecker, 22, of Prospect attempted to pass one driven by Homer T. Little, 31, of 200 Walnut St. When Hecker saw traffic approaching, he pulled back to the right and struck the rear of Little's car. At the same time, Hecker's vehicle was struck in the rear by one driven by Charles Drown, 17, of Prospect. All three cars were southbound.

Minor damage was reported on all three cars. Hecker was ordered to appear in Municipal Court Saturday and Drown was ordered to appear in Juvenile Court at a later date. Both were charged with following too closely.

The two cars collided at the corner of N. Main St. and Fairground St. Sunday at 11:58 p.m.

An accident Saturday night at the same corner resulted in slight injury to Jolly Arnett, 22, of 139 Scioto St. He was treated for a cut on the head and released. Police then arrested him on charges of reckless operation and driving without an operator's license.

He probably will confine his activities to the office to assist in issuing various permits and perform other office duties, Mayor Robinson said.

TWO MARION YOUTHS furnished the opposition in the Class A and B finals for Whitman and Fyffe.

Whitman, in the first lane, came fast at the finish to nip Larry Craig of Central TV Service, who had won three previous races, by half a car length in the Class A final.

Bobby Flach of Diehl Garage was runner-up to Fyffe in the Class B division, finishing a car length behind the Caledonia youth, who won with a 29.1 effort.

Whitman, the eventual Derby champ, was extended to the limit in the A semi-finals He nosed out Andy Tate of LaRue, 1952 Class B champ, by a fraction of an inch in a photo finish in time of 28.3. Tate only a race before had figured in a dead heat with Jeff Greenwood of the Marion Engineer Depot and in a re-running of the race nosed out Greenwood in 28.3.

DONALD DANIEL, of Fairfield Engineering Co., Class B winner last year, advanced to the A semi-finals Saturday before losing. He won his first two heats with times of 28.5 and 28.3, then dropped out in the heat with Whitman and Tate

Tim Clark of Clark Metal Products was another derby semi-finalist Saturday, winning a pair of heats before losing to Fyffe.

It required only two and one-half hours to run off the 38 heats in the race. A total of 70 racers of all sizes, shapes, colors and designs left the wooden ramp in front of the Ohio Edison Co. for their journies to the finish line at Columbia St. Of that number, 42 were in Class A, for boys 12 through 15, and 28 were in the Class B division for youngsters 11 and 12.

—:—

MARION MAYOR Harold Robinson came in second in the special Mayors' race or "Oil Can Special." Driving special oil drum racers, Delaware City Manager Robert Mott won the race in 30.1 Third was Mansfield Mayor Robert Lemley. The prize was a chrome plated oil can.

ACROSS THE COUNTER

Did you hear about the lady who was struck on the back porch by a windstorm? I'm sure you'll agree that's not a proper place to strike a lady!

Speaking of windstorms, and who isn't these days? — tornado damage last year was more than four times as high as any previous year. Even cities that thought they were not in "tornado country" — such as Worcester, Massachusetts and Waco, Texas, suffered severe blows. Already this year our own community has come face to face with windstorms exceeding in intensity anything thought possible for this particular locality.

Earl J. Andrews

We are all inclined to discount the danger from a bad windstorm until our streets and lawns are dotted with fallen trees and our roofs and television aerials are blown helter skelter. Believe it or not, a windstorm accounts for the "2nd worst insurance disaster in history"—the storm in Northeastern United States in 1950.

After each disaster, the newspapers give much attention to the relief role played by the Red Cross and governmental agencies. But the real task of rehabilitation and rebuilding is made possible through INSURANCE CHECKS.

The weather is changeable. We never know when we may have another major windstorm here. Let us review your insurance policies to see if you need extra protection.

Stop by tomorrow.

Indians Retain League Lead With Win in Nightcap

Cleveland Wins Second 7-4 After 8-3 Defeat in Opener

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cleveland's Indians dropped out of first place for three hours yesterday but then bounced back on a come-from-behind double by Bobby Avila and Al Rosen's first home run for the Tribe since June 23

Washington dumped the Tribe, 8-3 in the opener of the doubleheader and the New York Yankees climbed into an undisputed hold on the league lead for the first time this year by beating Detroit.

The world champs held their half-game lead in the pennant race for just two hours and 58 minutes Then Detroit's Tigers snapped their 13-game winning streak while the Indians were defeating the Nats, 7-4

Rosen, who broke the index finger of his right hand May 25 while fielding a hot grounder, smacked his 15th home run of the year for the Indians in the second game's first inning with Avila on base The ball went 400 feet into center field and the third baseman rounded the bases before it could be thrown in.

He hit two four - base blows against the National League in the All-Star Game last Tuesday, but those don't count for the record books

Avila's double scored George Strickland and Wally Westlake in the seventh and gave the Tribe a 5-4 lead It never gave up. Strickland had singled and Westlake had walked Strickland singled in the fifth, advanced on a pinch single by Hank Majeski and scored as Al Smith grounded out.

The Indians' other two runs in the second game were in the eighth when Rosen singled, Billy Glynn doubled and Jim Hegan tripled.

Washington chased Bob Lemon from the mound and scored four runs in the fourth but was held scoreless the rest of the way by Don Mossi and Hal Newhouser Mossi got credit for the victory, his fourth against one loss.

For the Nats in that big inning, Mickey Vernon walked, there were singles by Jim Busby, Tom Umphlett and Jerry Snyder, and then Maurice McDermott doubled.

The Nats got four runs in the first inning of the first game too, chasing Art Houtteman who was charged with the loss. Eddie Yost and Vernon doubled, Johnny Pesky and Ed Fitzgerald singled and Busby and Snyder drew walks.

Yost hit his 10th home run in the second, and the other Nat runs came in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings, one at a time.

Cleveland's only tallies in the first game were in the first and third In the first, Smith walked, advanced on Avila's single and finally scored on a fly by Rosen In the third, Smith singled and Avila doubled—Smith scoring on a fly by Doby and Avila on a single by Rosen

Early Wynn pitches for Cleveland today against Washington's Spec Shea. Wynn, who has won 11 and lost five, has a 2-1 record against Washington Shea lost twice to the Indians.

Tiger Leaders Choose Yankees

NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Freddie Hutchinson of the Detroit Tigers and Schoolboy Rowe, his first lieutenant, agreed today that the New York Yankees will win their sixth straight pennant but they differed as to the degree

Hutchinson thinks the Yankees will win only after a hard-fought battle with Cleveland and Rowe believes the defending champions will win in a breeze

Hutchinson commented on the Yankees' prospects yesterday after the Tigers had split a doubleheader with them, losing 6-0, then winning 8-6.

"I'm not sure they have the better team but they have a psychological edge over Cleveland," he said "After all, they've been in three straight dogfights with the Indians and they've come out on top every time"

Rowe, former Tiger pitching great who returned to the club in the capacity of a pitching and first base coach this year, didn't mince any words

"I can't see anybody but the Yankees There's nobody around that can beat 'em. They're making their move now and once they grab the lead from Cleveland, nobody is going to take it away from them Certainly not the Indians They'll fold like an accordian They always do"

Commercial League All-Stars, Men Over 30 Notch Victories

The Commercial League All-Stars and squad of men over 30 were victorious in the pair of all star contests at Garfield Park Sunday night

The Commercial Leaguers edged the Church League All-Stars 3-2 while the men over 30 blanked the men under 30 5-0

Sonny Taylor performed something of a feat when he pitched in both contests, hurling a total of 15 innings and giving up seven hits.

A run in the last of the 10th enabled the Commercial Leaguers to triumph over the Church Leaguers Taylor, hurling for the winners, retired 11 men in a row over the sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth frames.

Taylor gave up only five hits The losers reached him for runs in the second and sixth frames. Bud England, the loser, permitted seven hits as the Commercial Leaguers netted a run in the third and one in the sixth before the game winning run.

The bases were loaded and no one was out when Paul Thomas singled to drive in the winning run for the Commercial League squad Culver, Frank, Thomas Baker and Taylor banged out hits for the winners. Harbolt homered for the losers

Tylor and Jim Kunkle combined to blank the men under 30 on three hits in the opener The men over 30 collected five safeties for single runs in the first, third fourth, fifth and sixth frames England, Trimmer and McKeever were all on the mound for the losers Fritz Walters had a double and two singles for the winners while Gruber and Eddie Young both added a single apiece Bob Smith with two singles and Walters with a single accounted for the losers' hits.

England and Taylor will face each other again Tuesday when Mac's Trading Post take on Carl's Auto Parts.

Bartzen Upsets Trabert, Takes Tennis Crown

CHICAGO (AP) — In scoring his first major tennis victory, southpaw Bernard (Tut) Bartzen proved his 135 pounds are not to be taken lightly hereafter by the game's big guns.

Bartzen, San Angelo, Tex., sporting goods salesman, wrapped up the National Clay Court crown yesterday with a 6-2 4-6, 6-0, 6-2 victory over the nation's premier amateur, Tony Trabert of Cincinnati

Prior to that championship match at the suburban River Forest Tennis Club, Bartzen had whipped the country's second-ranked player, Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, 7-5, 6-4, 6-2, in a semifinal.

Trabert was ranked No. 1 for the clay court meet; Seixas, No 2; and Bartzen, No 4, with Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., a semifinal victim of Trabert, No 3

The 26-year-old Bartzen knocked off Seixas, then Trabert with a dogged retrieving game in which he capitalized fully on every mistake the two stars made.

Against Seixas, the 5-foot-8 Texan loped tirelessly around the baselines and back court, saving scores of blasts off the powerful Philadelphian's racquet Eventually Seixas began to press too hard and made a number of conspicuous errors.

Squaring off against the formidable Trabert, Bartzen gave immediate indication that he was by no means intimidated, breaking the Cincinnati star's first service and taking the first set easily

Trabert turned on all his power in the second set, bulling through to victory on his fast serve and tremendous net game.

Cincy Clips Giants 14-4, Loses Finale

CINCINNATI (AP)—It was feast and famine yesterday for the Cincinnati Redlegs

They gorged up on 18 hits to trample the league - leading New York Giants 14-4 in the first game of a doubleheader In the nightcap, the Reds got only six hits and the Giants edged them 3-1

The two squads meet in the rubber match of their three - game series tonight in Crosley Field No team has taken a series from the Giants since Brooklyn turned the trick at the end of May at the Polo Grounds

The Reds put together four runs in the third to overcome a 2-0 deficit, and then added two in the fifth and single runs in the sixth and seventh

The six-run outburst in the eighth came on five singles and four walks Relief pitcher Frank Smith, who had one hit all last year and hasn't come up that mark this season, was walked with the bases loaded The Giant pitching was woeful with Ruben Gomez tagged for the loss

Johnny Temple was the only Red regular who did not get a hit Pitcher Howie Judson also did not hit He allowed the Giants 12 safeties, but these were so scattered they produced only four runs Smith was called to the mound after Judson allowed two consecutive hits in the eight But the win was Judson's, his fourth in seven decisions

Jim Hearn, Giant righthander, put the Reds in their place, however He was touched for six hits and a run. Monte Irvin and Willie Mays smashed consecutive home runs in the fifth to give him a not too comfortable lead So Manager Leo Durocher put in a pinchhitter for Hearn in the eighth The pinchhitter struck out, but the Giants managed a run anyway on a double and Alvin Dark's single to right

The Reds scored their run in the seventh on Temple's single, a walk and a ground out.

Corky Valentine, the Troy Ohio, pitcher, gave up the two home runs, pushing his record down to 7-9.

Stanky, Moore Battle; Phillies Awarded Forfeit Win

Cardinal Manager on Hot Spot After Riot in St. Louis

By JACK HAND
AP Sports Writer

Eddie Stanky, scrappy manager of the St. Louis Cards, boils on the hot seat today after a fist fight with Terry Moore, the man he fired as coach, and a 'forfeiture to the Phillies for delaying tactics.

Stanky and Moore, new manager of Philadelphia, tangled in the midst of one of St. Louis worst ball field riots in years yesterday to climax a flaming two-year-old feud.

After Moore was fired in 1952, he departed from his normal mild ways to blast Stanky. "When he loses a ball game he acts more like a 9-year-old boy than a manager," he said. "The job is too big for him. Stanky is temperamentally unsuited for the job of manager."

Fireworks were expected when Moore, named manager Thursday, met Stanky's Cards for the first time. It happened yesterday at Busch Stadium and they're still picking up the pieces. It was the first forfeiture since 1949.

Coming from behind three times the Phils pulled out the first game 11-10 in 10 innings on a double by Smoky Burgess and a single by Bobby Morgan. The game had been delayed 1 hour and 18 minutes by rain in the seventh.

The second game didn't start until after 6 p.m., so lights could not be turned on under National League rules. With darkness approaching in the fifth and the Phils leading 8-1 with one man on base and two out, Stanky had brought in two new pitchers and had waved for a third when umpire Babe Pinelli walked to the field telephone and notified the press box that the game was forfeited to Philadelphia 9-0. No individual records go into the book because the legal five innings weren't completed.

Stanky protested the game, claiming Pinelli had exceeded his authority. "Any delay prior to the forfeit including free-for-all was precipitated by members of the Philadelphia club," he said in a telegram to National League President Warren Giles.

Catcher Sal Yvars of the Cards and first baseman Earl Torgeson of the Phils touched off the big battle when they argued and squared off. The two players were old enemies, dating back to a free-for-all in Boston in 1952 over a broken bat when Yvars was with New York and Torgeson with the Braves.

Moore, ex-Cardinal great, tumbled out of the dugout and grabbed Yvars. Then Stanky tackled Moore. Moore came up with a dirty face and scratches on his neck. Stanky has a mouse under his right eye and a scratch on his neck. Players from both teams were on the field, punching and wrestling before police broke it up and escorted the men off the field.

The day's fistic action vied for attention with the pennant races.

Cleveland still leads the American by half a game. Both the Indians and New York Yankees split double-headers. The Yanks went out front briefly, for the first time since April 22, by winning the first from Detroit 6-0 on Harry Byrd's five-hitter, while Washington was thumping Cleveland 8-3. Cleveland rebounded into the lead by winning its second game 7-4 as the Yanks' 13-game winning streak was snapped by Detroit 8-6.

Chicago's White Sox took a pair from the feeble Philadelphia Athletics 10-2 and 4-3 although Paul Richards drew complaints for stalling in the second game. The White Sox scored four in the eighth and the A's had two to make it 8-5. when Richards changed pitchers twice and called for a third. Plate Umpire Charley Berry was trying to make the relief pitcher come in immediately when the 6:59 p.m. curfew stopped action. The score reverted to the end of the last full inning, the seventh.

The Boston Red Sox shut out Baltimore 4-0 on a one-hitter by Russ Kemmerer in his first major league start but the Orioles won the second game 4-1 on Duane Pillette's five-hit pitching.

In the National, New York split two at Cincinnati, losing 14-4 in the first game and winning 3-1 on Willie Mays' 33rd homer and Monte Irvin's 17th. As Brooklyn thumped Chicago 12-6 on homers by Roy Campanella, Duke Snider and Carl Furillo, the Giants lead was clipped to six games.

Milwaukee had to settle for an even break with the last-place Pittsburgh Pirates. Warren Spahn needed help from Ernie Johnson to hold the first game 4-1 but the Pirates scored six runs in the second inning on the way to a 7-5 victory in the second game.

Al Aber of Detroit was credited with stopping the Yanks' victory string although he needed help from George Zuverink in the last three innings.

Bill Krohmer Cops Feature at Tiffin

Bill Krohmer finished first in the 50-lap feature at the Tiffin Raceway Friday, finishing ahe: ' of a 20-car field. It was the first 50-lap event of the year at the Tiffin track.

Krohmer started in the 15th spot but had worked his way into third by the sixth lap. He moved to second to wage a battle with Ken Stuckey who had been leading most of the way. Krohmer went into the lead when Stuckey skidded on a turn.

Stuckey came in second with Dale Miller of Elmore third. Marion's Bobby Hinton finished seventh.

Krohmer also finished in third place in the first heat race. Jim Sherrock of Bucyrus came in third in the second race and Dick Woodall of Bucyrus was first in the third. Sherrock and Bob Harris of Bucyrus were one-two in the 15-lap consolation and Sherrock led the way in the 15-lap semi-final event.

Yesterday's STARS

Pitching — Russ Kemmerer, Boston Red Sox, making his first major league start, pitched a brilliant one-hitter against Baltimore as the Red Sox blanked the Orioles 4-0 in the first game of a doubleheader.

Batting—Minnie Minoso, Chicago White Sox, collected six hits in nine times at bat, including four-for-four in the second game, as the White Sox took a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Athlethics 10-2 and 4-3.

Welterweights Carded for TV Boxing Feature

NEW YORK (AP)—Yolande Pompey, the man from Trinidad whose name sounds like the first line of a Calypso tune, makes his first U.S. start Wednesday at Chicago Stadium against Moses Ward of Detroit.

For three years, Pompey has been attracting attention in Britain, knocking out the late Dave Sands, fighting a draw with Jimmy Slade and beating Slade in a rematch. He is ranked fifth among the light heavy challengers although he may campaign as a middleweight after a few American fights.

Pompey got down to 162 for Bobby Dawson Jan. 25, the only fight he lost. In his last outing he weighed 169½ when he knocked out Guiliano Pancini May 13 in London.

Ward will be remembered for his exciting bouts with Willie Troy, Holly Mims and George Johnson. Although he lost all three and was stopped twice, his action style won many fans.

The Chicago match will be seen on CBS-TV.

TV fans get their first look at Chris Christensen, the Danish welter champ, in a 10-round match with Billy Graham at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway tonight. Christensen lost his only U.S. start, to Billy Lauderdale.

This is almost a comeback for Graham, high-ranked welter contender. He has had only one fight since December, when he won over Paddy Young. He underwent an appendectomy and then injured an elbow in a Danbury, Conn., bout with Charley Simmons. He is now back in top physical condition.

The bout will be on ABC-TV.

Al Andrews of Superior, Wis., and Sauveur Chiocca of France top the St. Nicholas Arena card (Du Mont-TV) with a welterweight 10-rounder tonight.

The clever Andrews packs a little more experience than the Frenchman, youngest member of Jean Bretonnel's stable. Chiocca's best win was over Danny Jo Perez in a Madison Square Garden prelim. Andrews holds decisions over Chuck Davey, Pat Manzi, Pat Lowry and Joey Klein.

Marion Merchants Clip Kenton Softballers 11-3

The Marion Merchants dumped North Electric of Kenton 11-3 in a nine-inning contest Saturday night at Garfield Park.

The Merchants scored their 11 on 12 hits and five Kenton errors. The losers managed to pick up eight hits while Marion was playing errorless ball. Wilcox and Medley shared the mound duties for the winners. Sans was the losing hurler. Bob Higgins with a double and two singles and Gruber belted a home run and three singles to drive in three tallies. Conley scored two with a triple and two more were accounted for by Dutt who smacked a two-base hit. R. Bruber also tripled Dyer with a double and Ickes with a triple led the losers.

Stock Car Driver Dies In Crash at Powell Oval

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Stock car driver Ned Tomlinson, 30, of Lima died yesterday of injuries received Saturday during a pileup of racers at nearby Powell Speedway.

Track officials said Tomlinson swered to avoid hitting another car when a tire blew out. Tomlinson's 1932 coupe and two other stock cars crashed. All drivers were strapped in their models for safety.

Tomlinson died at University Hospital early yesterday.

It takes more than 10,000 light bulbs to flash the odds and results to Monmouth Park racing fans on the track's two outdoor tote boards.

Rambo Takes Feature Race At Opening of Speed Bowl

Ted Rambo of Marion took the feature event at the Sunday opening of the Marion Speed Bowl. Ken Stuckey of Tiffin came in second and Bill Krohmer of Marion was third. Clarence Ray of Forest copped the No. 4 spot.

Stuckey and Krohmer put up a nip and tuck battle for the runner up spot with Stuckey edging ahead in the late stages of the race. Gene More and Don Stevens, both of Marion, went over the bank during the event. Moore's car rolled twice but neither driver was injured.

Ray came out on top in the opening race with Bob Christman of Findlay and Krohmer behind him in that order. The race was restarted after Bill Collier of Marion, Rambo, Stevens and Paul Hooper were tangled on the first lap. With the exceptin of Hooper all were able to restart. Stuckey and Stevens were out after bad spins and Rambo later followed suit.

In the second race, it was Dick Woodall of Bucyrus with Walt Hamilton of Richwood second and Joe Erwin of Richwood in third. Carl Heffelfinger of Upper Sandusky was leading until he spun out on the sixth lap.

Bob Harris of Bucyrus crssed the finish line first in the third race with Frank Yonikus of Bucyrus second and Jim Ewing of Tiffin in third.

Krohmer came out on top in the winners' handicap with Christman taking second and Ray coming in third.

In the consolation event, Rambo was first with Stuckey and Hooper following in that order. Hooper copped the semi-final event with Charles Wilcox of Richwood and Moore coming in two-three.

The largest crowd of the season witnessed the Sunday night program and the season's largest field was on hand. Roy Hobson, new manager of the Marion Speed Bowl, said he expected an even larger entry list for next Sunday's races.

Marion's Pony League Stars Advance to Defiance Action

By GARY SAMS

A run in the bottom of the final frame and a one-hit relief job over the last two innings by Bob Lister enabled the Marion Pony League All-Stars to edge Bellefontaine's Pony Leaguers 5-4 in their opening district 4 tournament test at Lincoln Park Saturday night.

The win advanced the locals to further district 4 play at Defiance Tuesday. Marion's opponent that night at 7 p.m. will be Delphos, which qualified for the Defiance tourney by edging Payne in extra innings as both hurlers registered 18 strikeouts. The Tuesday winner will play the winner of the Defiance — Edgerton Northwest Ohio All Stars.

Starter Jim Harris and Lister combined to hold the losers to three hits in the Saturday night win. They struck out a total of 17 Bellefontaine batters, Harris whiffing 12 over the four and two-thirds innings he worked.

Harris held the visitors to one run on no hits through the first four frames as Marion enjoyed a 2-1 bulge but Bellefontaine reached Harris for three runs on two hits in the fifth after Marin scored once in the first of that inning for a 4-3 lead. Lister received credit for the win as he hurled the sixth and seventh innings when Marion scored a run in each to account for the win.

Bellefontaine drew first blood when Artis, the lead-off batter, walked, stole second and came in on a pair of throwing errors. The locals changed the complexion of the contest in the third with two runs. Steve Flesher singled, Everett Rice tripled him home and Bob Klingle singled bringing in Rice. Then in the fifth, Marion added another run as Harris singled and advanced on a passed ball and sacrifice by Flesher and then Joe Ambrose squeezed Harris in with a bunt single.

The losers scored their final runs in the fifth when Rays walked, Kerns singled infield and Ammons tripled to center. Marion scored once in the sixth on Ted Anderson's double and Bob Claypool's single and error on the catcher who dropped the ball at home as Claypool came in. The winning run in the seventh came about on a walk to Flesher, single by Rice and error on Anderson's grounder.

Marion combed starter Haws and Brown of Bellefontaine for 11 hits. The pair of Bellefontaine hurlers struck out five.

MAYS 6 GAMES AHEAD

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Giants' Willie Mays is six games ahead of Babe Ruth's 1927 home run record pace of 60. Mays hit his 33rd homer in the second game of a twinbill against Cincinnati yesterday. The clout, off rookie Corky Valentine, came in game 89 for Willie. Ruth didn't belt no. 33 until his 95th game on July 26.

Flight Winners Set in Country Club Tourney

Russ Reichardt, Lou Cummins and Dr. Charles Wilson were flight winners in the Marion Country Club handicap championship.

Reichardt, Class A winner, Lou Cummins, winner of Class B, and Dr. Wilson, who copped the Class C title, won their flight titles last week and will meet for the club championship at a later date, probably this week, according to Jack Stoddard, Country Club pro.

Winners in a tournament last Saturday, a match against par with handicap, were John Tjaden, Paul Hunt, John Rife, J. B. Bray Jr., Bob LaMarche, Jack Weis, E. L. Mitchell, Fred Sage, Maurice Cornell, Dave Pollak and Bob Owens.

Marion downed Bellefontaine 34-30 in an inter-club match here last Wednesday. Approximately 25 players made up each team, with Dr. John Vornholt medalist for the winners with a 74. Jjerfe had a 73 for the Bellefontaine squad. Stoddard, just going along for fun, fired a 68. Following the match,

Bergen Without Charlie

"A Connecticut Yankee at King Arthur's Court" is as perfect a bit of reverie as America has ever produced, and I daresay it will never get very far from the TV cameras. The Mark Twain classic has been made into a motion picture three times — in 1921, 1931 and 1949 — and has been a musical on Broadway in 1927 and 1943.

J. CROSBY

It has been a television drama at least twice and maybe more, the last being a Kraft production on ABC-TV with Edgar Bergen making one of his rare appearances without Charlie McCarthy as the Connecticut Yankee. Besides parting with Charlie for awhile — an excellent idea —this was quite a departure in another way for Bergen who has been monkeying around with and championing filmed television for years.

THIS WAS LIVE television and Bergen romped through his hour-long straight role with great ease and assurance as if he were having the time of his life, as I suspect he was. In moments of stress, he sounded an awful lot like Charlie rather than himself, which didn't hurt a bit He was surrounded by an expert cast which included Jack Livesey as King Arthur, Joey Walsh as Clarence and Victor Jory as Merlin.

The original novel along with its surefire fantasy contains a good deal of social satire, some of it, as in the case of a lot of Twain's books, pretty bitter. The dramatic adaptor always has the choice of leaving in the bitterness which tends to sour the comedy or play it strictly for laughs. George Roy Hill, who adapted the Kraft version, took the second choice and made the whole thing a medieval romp in the sunshine

OF COURSE, the Yankee does thrust democracy on the thoroughly astonished sixth - century rabble, but the election campaign between Sir Launcelot and Sir Kay was just a device to poke a little fun at our political stuffed shirts and their queer habits. Incidentally, this bit went on much too long There's an awful lot of grist in "The Connecticut Yankee" which had to be cut out and more of it could have been crowded in if the election had been shortened a bit.

There were some awfully good scenes — King Arthur dozing on his throne while his knights tell tall and absolutely phony stories about their exploits, Bergen causing a panic by lighting a cigar with his cigarette lighter, and the final scene — always a triumph of wish-fulfillment—when Bergen causes or appears to cause a total eclipse.

Altogether it was great fun and I hope they do it again, Bergen and all. This is not the first time that Bergen has appeared without Charlie. In 1948 he played a small part in the movie version of "I Remember Mama." It may get to be a habit.

THE TWO - TIME WINNER— and perhaps three-time winner by now—on the Amateur Hour is a one-legged Navy veteran who tap dances When he appeared for his last bit, he told Ted Mack, the proprietor of this enterprise, that he didn't want to win on sympathy, he wanted to win on talent alone Then he proceeded to do a little jig on crutches

I don't know whether he won and haven't enough interest to find out. I do know, though, that, if he won, it was on sympathy, not on talent He hasn't any talent How the devil can a one-legged man have any talent as a tap dancer?

This playing on our sympathies —"Strike It Rich" and "This Is Your Life" and all the rest of them—continues to be as maudlin and unnecessary as ever. But, for heaven's sake, let's not let any hypocrisy creep in A one-legged piano player could conceivably be judged on talent. A one-legged tap dancer has no other purpose than to call attention to his affliction and Ted Mack must know it as well as the rest of us

Goodyear Co., Union Launch Strike Parleys

11-Day-Old Walkout Continues; Seiberling Locals OK Strike Vote

CLEVELAND (AP) — Talks begin today between representatives of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co and the CIO United Rubber Workers in an effort to end the nation-wide strike which began 11 days ago.

The union represents Goodyear's 23,000 production workers who walked off their jobs in 10 plants across the country following a wage discussion breakdown.

A settlement could set a pattern for union contracts with other large rubber companies, all of which are currently engaged in talks with the union

Paul E Bowers, the union's pension director, heads the labor negotiating team, and meets with company officials led by Goodyear Vice President Fred Climer.

Before negotiations were broken off July 7 in Cincinnati, Goodyear had offered a five-cents hourly pay raise, but the union stood firm on a demand for a seven-and-a-half cents hourly boost plus about five cents an hour to adjust interplant wage differentials.

The pay scale had averaged $2 08 an hour

Picketing has been peaceful at the plants, which are in Akron and St Mary's Ohio Gadsden, Ala ; Topeka, Kans Munice, Ind Los Angeles, Lincoln Neb , Jackson, Mich , New Bedford, Mass , and Windsor, Vt

In Barberton and Carey, Ohio, the rubber workers membership at Seiberling Rubber Co plants yesterday authorized the union to take a strike vote Wednesday .About 1,750 workers are employed at the two plants

Seiberling and the union have been holding talks, though terms have not been made public

Union local President Henry W Gilliam said the union proposed to "set the Big Four pattern," and he doubted any strike would be called against Seiberling until after such a pattern was set

The "Big Four' in the rubber industry are Goodyear the B F Goodrich Co the United States Rubber Co , and the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co

Mildew Preventives

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP) — Molds that cause mildew damage to clothing and fabrics in the home thrive in damp, dark, warm and poorly ventilated corners.

Helen Rocke, of the University of Nebraska faculty, says the molds grow on cotton, linen, silk, wool, leather, paper or wood.

To prevent mildew, she advises, make sure that clothes or household goods are clean and dry when stored for the summer and then put in a clean, dry place.

She said dehumidifying appliances work well in basements. Electric fans, moisture absorbing chemicals, and the burning of an electric light bulb in small closets also are helpful in preventing mildew.

Labor Officials Seek To Avoid Pike Stoppages

CLEVELAND (AP) — Officers of three labor organizations whose members are working on the Ohio Turnpike have pledged to avoid work stoppages on the 241-mile toll road.

Frank P. Converse, president of the operating engineers union, said fellow union leaders should "try in every conceivable way to bring about ways and means to avoid work stoppages of any kind."

That viewpoint was shared by Louis Triscaro, business representative of the Teamsters Central States District Council, and Tom Fioretti, state secretary of the laborers district council.

The three officials made the statements at a get-together with turnpike contractors and other contractors working in the Cleveland area.

Galion Woman Injured As Two Vehicles Collide

GALION — One woman was injured and hospitalized as the result of a two-car collision on Harding Way East and East St. Saturday afternoon. The two 1954 model cars driven by two women involved in the accident were badly damaged and one was towed away from the scene.

Mrs. Doris Stoffer, 26, of Galion, suffered back injuries and was admitted to City Hospital for treatment. Mrs. Kathleen Smotherman, 41, of Mansfield, was making a left-hand turn from Harding Way East onto East St. and turned directly in front of Mrs. Stoffer who was proceeding west on Harding Way East.

Both cars were damaged considerably. A wrecker was called to tow away the Stoffer car. Police reported that Mrs. Smotherman was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

Zoning of Industry Found Possible in Little Communities

CHICAGO (UP)—Smaller communities, especially those on the outskirts of growing metropolitan areas, have a good chance to set up organized industrial districts, according to the American Society of Planning Officials.

The society cited a study of 122 such industrial districts made by the U. S. Department of Commerce. The survey revealed that most such districts are in cities of more than 100,000 population.

But the results indicated that smaller communities could establish successful districts themselves.

A list of the larger districts includes the Central Manufacturing and Clearing Districts, of Chicago; Airlawn and Trinity districts of Dallas, Tex.; Fairfax district, Kansas City, Kan.; Peachtree, Atlanta, Ga., and the Inner Harbor Navigation Canal, New Orleans, La.

Railroads own 38 per cent of the 122 districts included in the survey. Private developers, including building contractors and industrial real estate brokers, own 25 per cent. Industrial foundations own five per cent, and municipal governments nine per cent. Most of the remainder are owned by combinations of such groups.

In most of the districts, streets, railroad tracks, water supply lines and other utilites were installed before the sites were sold to prospective occupants.

Galionite Sees Brother First Time in 24 Years

GALION—A Galion man, Adolph Klinghammer, recently was reunited with a brother, Louis Klinghammer, for the first time in 24 years.

The meeting took place in Chicago where Mr. and Mrs. Louis Klinghammer have been living since they arrived in the U. S. from Germany last March.

Adolph Klinghammer and his wife went to Chicago for the meeting. Before returning to Galion, they also visited with relatives in Lorain and with their son, Pliny Keep, at Painesville. Keep is a medical student at Western Reserve University, Cleveland, and is the doctor at the summer YMCA camp at Painesville.

Permanent Rating Eyed by Captain

WASHINGTON (UP)—Ever hear of a soldier who has held the rank of captain four times?

Pentagon records show that John C. Rennie of (Woodland Drive) Columbus, Ga., has done just that—and he's not too happy about it.

Three times Rennie was a British captain, and now he holds that rank in the U. S. Army. At the moment he is an instructor in the infantry school at Fort Benning, Ga.

Rennie served in the British Army with King George V's Own Gurkha Rifles from 1939 to 1947. He was promoted to captain in 1942 and later to the rank of major.

Under British regulations, if an officer is away from his company for 30 days or more he reverts to his former rank. Rennie was hurt and was in a hospital for 30 days, so he reverted to a captaincy. He was promoted to major again. Then he spent more than 30 days at a tactical school and was back to the rank of captain.

Now he's a captain again. And when he was notified of his "promotion," all he could way was:

"I hope it sticks this time. I'm tired of being shoved up and down."

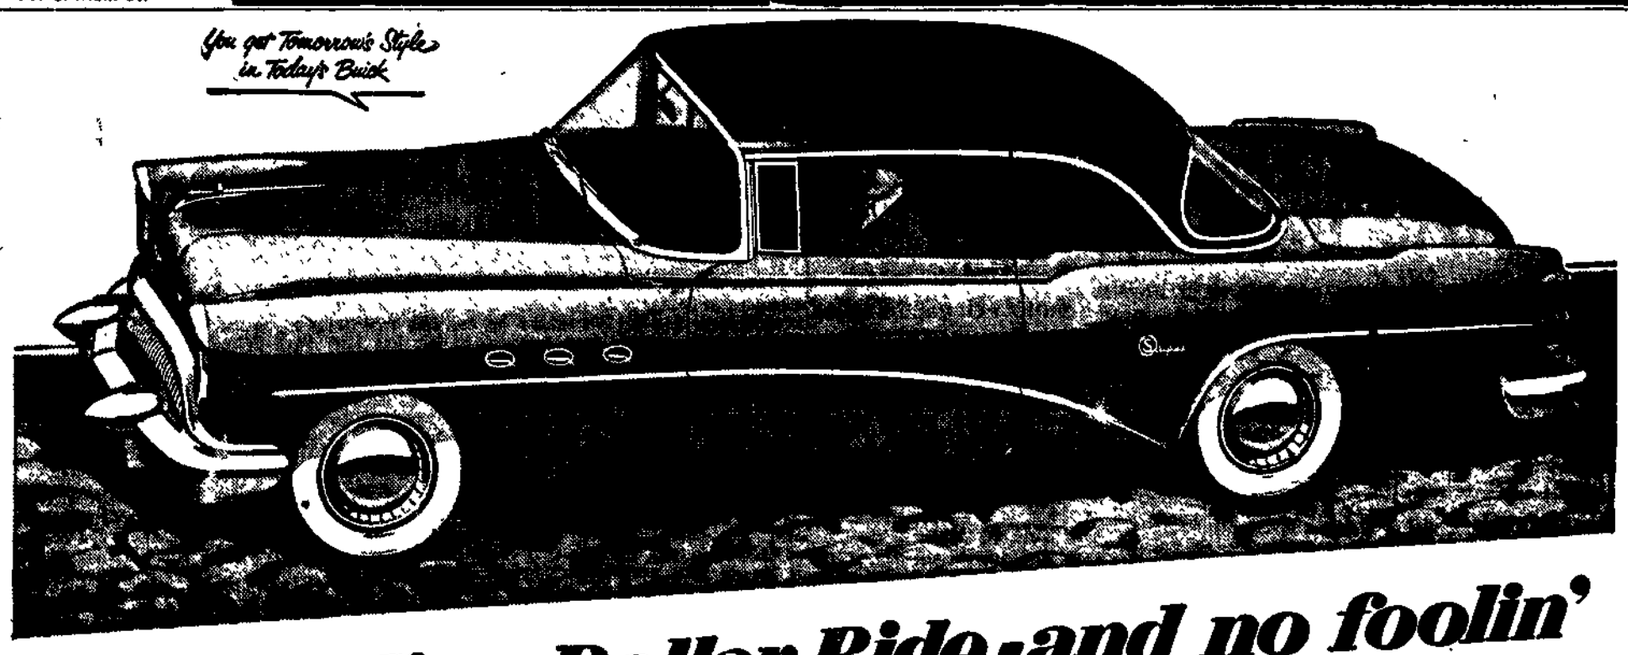
You get Tomorrow's Style in Today's Buick



It's a Million Dollar Ride-and no foolin'

You can see for yourself the gay and gorgeous styling that's sure to be the fresh note next year, too.

And you can easily learn that here is power a-plenty—the highest V8 power, Series for Series, in the annals of Buick history.

But what you can never know, till you try it yourself, is the feel of a Buick in motion.

It's a ride as precision-soft and firm as only coiled steel can make it.

Yes, coil springs on all four wheels. And a full-length torque-tube drive for true tracking. And a massive X-braced frame for solid steadiness. And specially calibrated shock absorbers, V-braced struts, wide-rim wheels, a unique front-end geometry—plus a host of other betterments too numerous to mention.

You feel the result of this advanced engineering every mile you drive—in what is literally and figuratively a Million Dollar Ride.

You feel it in the superb and buoyant cradling. You feel it in the serene levelness of your going over ruts and ridges. You feel it in the precise snubbing of jars and jounces. You feel it in a new kind of steadiness, handling ease, curve control.

Only thing for you to do, we believe, is to come try this miracle of motion—and we'll be glad to oblige.

That way you'll also learn firsthand about the style, the power, and the value that have made Buick such a best-selling success this year. For Buick today is outselling all other cars in America except two of the so-called "low-price three."

(Smart tip: With Buick such a beautiful buy this year, think what a winner it's bound to be at trade-in time! Come see us this week!)

NO OTHER CAR GIVES YOU ALL THIS:

GREATEST STYLING ADVANCE IN YEARS with completely new bodies across the board; lowered rooflines, longer and higher fender sweep, exclusive sweepspear design

NEWEST VISIBILITY ADVANCE with backswept windshields that give 19% more visibility; greater glass area around full 360° arc

FINEST MILLION DOLLAR RIDE—from all-coil springing, torque-tube drive, longer wheelbases—and a new front-end geometry that stabilizes "cornering," insures more positive control, more responsive handling

HIGHEST V8 HORSEPOWERS in Buick history—from advanced vertical-valve V8 engines with up to 8.5 to 1 compression and 200 hp—plus more fuel efficiency from new Power Head Pistons

BIGGEST VENTILATION ADVANCE in Buick interior comfort; new, screened intake just below windshield brings in huge quantities of outside air at hood-high level, freer of road heat and fumes

Mine Detector Fails To Find Tool in Murder

Shallows Off Beach Searched; Sheppard Case Probe Continues

CLEVELAND (AP) — The pebbly mud in Lake Erie shallows, strewn with bottle caps and bits of refuse, has failed to yield the instrument that chopped up the pretty face of Mrs. Marilyn Sheppard.

Detectives used a mine detector to scour the beach and water behind the sprawling Bay Village home where the 31-year-old wife of an osteopath was found murdered in her blood-soaked bed July 4.

Search Continues

The search for the murder weapon continued through patches of weeds in an embankment between the beach and the house.

The suburbs police chief, John P. Eaton, had borrowed the mine detector from Fort Hayes in Columbus, and an Army sergeant was sent to help operate it.

Eaton said he did not plan to continue using two professional divers, who last week futilely picked over the lake bottom to a distance of 300 feet from the shore. Police had estimated that to be the greatest distance the murder weapon could have been hurled by a person standing near the shoreline.

Coroner Samuel R. Gerber has estimated that the four - months pregnant woman could have lived five to 30 minutes after her head was struck repeatedly by the weapon, believed to be a blunt instrument.

Mrs. Sheppard' apparently tore hair from her head while she trashed in agony, the coroner said, and the amount of blood on her bed also indicated she did not die immediately.

Savageness Noted

Police speculated the savageness of the attack points to a psychotic person as the murderer.

Authorities released Mrs. Jessie M. Dill Saturday after questioning her on her statement that a woman answering Mrs. Sheppard's description had confided some intimate secrets at nearby Fairport Harbor last June 14. Mrs. Dill, a 24-year-old divorcee, had volunteered the information to Bay Village police the previous day. She was the only material witness held in the case.

Chocolate Sponge Parfait Is Pretty Dessert

A chocolate sponge parfait is a good ending for any meal.

Made of a frothy blend of chocolate flavored gelatin alternated with layers of tinted whipped cream and with a peppermint stick on top of each serving it's pretty as a picture.

By tilting the glass slightly as you spoon in the ingredients, you will achieve this special layered effect.

Use: 1 eveleope (1 tablespoon) gelatin, two thirds cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1½ cups milk, 2 squares unsweetened chocolate, 3 egg yolks slightly beaten, 3 egg whites, unbeaten, 1 teaspoon vanilla, ¾ cup coconut, cut; one third to ½ cup chilled whipping cream, Red coloring, Peppermint extract.

Mix gelatin, one third cup of the sugar, salt, and milk in top of double boiler. Add chocolate. Cook over hot water until chocolate is melted and gelatin is thoroughly dissolved. Blend well with egg beater. Pour slowly over egg yolks, stirring constantly. Return mixture to double boiler and cook 3 minutes longer, stirring constantly. Cool, then chill until slightly thickened.

Beat egg whites until foamy throughout. Add remaining one third cup sugar gradually and continue beating until mixture will stand in stiff peaks. Fold in chocolate mixture gradually, blending well. Add vanilla and coconut.

Place cream in small bowl. Add few drops red coloring to tint a delicate pink. Beat with egg beater until fluffy and thick. Then fold in a few drops peppermint extract.

Place alternate layers of chocolate mixture and peppermint whipped cream in parfait glasses. Chill. Just before serving, top with additional whipped cream and crushed red peppermint candies. Makes 9 servings.

Scientist Suggests Families Prepare For 'H-Bomb Day'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A UCLA psychologist suggests family preperation against any "H-bomb day."

Experience has shown that activity reduces fear and anxiety, Dr. David Boder said yesterday. He has studied the impact of disaster on large populations. Accordingly, he suggested:

Plan specific duties for each member of the family. Dad can load the car, for example, while Mother looks after the food. Older brothers and sisters can care for the younger children.

Decide in advance on a familiar rendezvous in case family members are separated. Don't stall or resist evacuation. Even if the family isn't hurt by a blast, food and water may be contaminated.

Have identification tags for all the family bearing name and blood type. Invest in E Bonds, cashable even if lost or destroyed, especially with a list of serial numbers.

Parrot Fever Reported Serious in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The bird departments in six city stores have been closed in an effort to combat the virus disease psittacosis, or parrot fever, the Philadelphia Health Department has disclosed.

The department said 30 cases of the disease had been reported in the city. Acting Health Commissioner Dr. Norman I. Ingraham said this was "near epidemic proportions."

Elderly Bachelor Is Beaten, Robbed

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP) —Winnie M. Jones, 57, a frugal bachelor who made thousands of dollars crabbing and oyster tonging but didn't trust banks to keep it for him, was near death and penniless today.

Neighbors, who heard his cries for help early yesterday, found him lying in the kitchen of his neat four-room house at Bishop Head, 30 miles south of here. He had been savagely beaten.

Sheriff Waldo H. Robinson, who questioned Jones at the hospital during one of his rare periods of consciousness, said he told him he had been carrying between $5,000 and $6,000.

"They have some business they want me to handle and I will be assigned essentially as an aide," he said.

Indian Statue Circles Globe Aboard Carrier

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) —Princess Matsui is home, grim-faced as ever and uncommunicative about her trip around the world.

The princess is a statue of a Seminole Indian. But she has proof, painted on her base, that she traveled around the world.

By coincidence she disappeared from the Seminole Hotel lobby just before the carrier USS Saipan left nearby Mayport last fall and reappeared when the Saipan docked yesterday.

Princess Matsui's ports of call happen to be the same as those of the Saipan. The princess has another memento—a certificate that she crossed the Equator.

Two massive fortifications, El Morro and San Cristobal, at San Juan, Puerto Rico, were the strongest bastions built by the Spanish in the entire West Indies.

Dentist's Wife Still Wearing Playboy's Ring

Mrs. Small Doubtful On Future Plans, May Try at Reconciliation

DETROIT (AP)—"I just want to start forgetting," said the trim, dark-eyed wife of Dr. Kenneth B. Small, the handsome Detroit dentist found innocent by reason of insanity in the slaying of her suitor.

While her dentist-husband was attending church services in his cell at Allegan, awaiting further disposition of his case, Mrs. Edith Small held an interview yesterday with reporters in the couple's home in a fashionable northwest Detroit section.

"I just don't know what will happen to our marriage," she said. But "whatever happens, it will be what is best for the children."

The couple has three sons—Steve, 7; Billy, 4; and Clifford, 2.

Mrs. Small appeared listless as she sat in the living room, while cars of curious drove slowly past the house. She was wearing a blue denim sun dress and on her finger was the sapphire ring given to her by the slain Jules M. Lack, 45-year-old New York playboy-industrialist.

The 30-year-old brunette said she and her husband would remain separated while they undergo psychiatric treatment. "We both need treatment," she said.

Mrs. Small visited her husband at the Allegan County Jail Saturday after the jury's verdict. They reportedly embraced and she begged forgiveness. Then the 31-year-old dentist thanked her for testifying during the five-day murder trial.

Allegan County Sheriff Walter Runkel said Dr. Small is definitely making plans to resume his marriage "and he'll be the happiest boy in the world to get her back."

But the dentist told reporters: "It's too early to say. We've both got a lot of thinking to do."

Dr. Small was sent back to jail following the trial to await action by his attorney, Leo Hoffman, who said he intends to ask a sanity commission hearing Wednesday.

The law specifies that Dr. Small be committed to an institution. But if the commission finds him sane, he goes free.

'AM I GLAD TO SEE YOU AGAIN!': Mrs. De Vere Baker rushes forward with outstretched arms to greet her husband as he comes ashore at San Francisco, Calif., from the bangna frieghter Metapan. The Metapan answered the SOS call and plucked Baker and four other members of the foundering craft Lehi in rough seas off the California coast early July 15, ending a dream of the Lehi's crew to float the craft to Hawaii.

Flight Training Aids Marriages

NEW YORK—If you're looking for a husband and a happy marriage, become an airline hostess.

The president of the Kiwis, a new national organization of former hostesses of American Airlines, says it is an occupation offering more along matrimonial lines than any other business she knows of.

Mrs. Willis W. Mitchell, a Dallas, Tex., resident who married a pilot she met on an automobile trip, pointed out that not only does a girl meet plenty of eligible men as a hostess, she also learns the fundamentals which make her a good wife and mother.

A hostess learns child care from feeding and changing diapers of small passengers; how to serve food gracefully, because she serves hundreds of meals aloft each year; and she learns patience, from handling the public.

"She also learns not to talk back," said the attractive blonde mother of two teen-agers. "The passenger is always right So is a husband, I've been married 16 years and haven't won an argument yet."

Among hostesses, the marriage rate is high; the divorce rate low. She cited statistics from the airlines, where she worked before her marriage. Last year, of the 236 hostesses who resigned, 200 did so to marry.

Of the 3,000 members of the Kiwis—named for the Kiwi bird which can't fly—she knows of only one whose marriage failed.

"A hostess is good marriage material," she said, "because the airline already has done the screening for the prospective husband."

Average Army Size Is 38, Report Shows

WASHINGTON — (UP) — How big are our fighting men? The Army's anthropometric survey reveals:

The average U. S. Army soldier weighs 155 pounds, is five feet, 8½ inches tall, wears a size 38 uniform, marches in a size 9-D shoe, measures 14½ inches around the neck, has a 32 sleeve length, a 36.3-inch chest, a 30.6 inch waist and a hip measurement of 36.36 inches.

The quartermaster corps made a tailoring survey in the interest of better-fitting uniforms. Some 65 various dimensions per man were taken during the cross-section survey.

Individual measurements, of course, vary widely from the theoretical average.

Weights run from 90 pounds to 309, height from 59 to 79 inches, neck sizes from 11 to 19 inches, shoulders from 35 to 54 inches, chest from 26 to 48 inches, and hips from 26 to 50 inches.

Connecticut sales tax figures show that residents of the state spend more on automobiles than they do on groceries.

Patrol Reports Four Accidents In Area Traffic

Four accidents were reported over the weekend on roads in Morrow and Wyandot County by state patrolmen from the Marion post. Three of the mishaps happened in Morrow County, while the fourth was reported in Wyandot County.

Two drivers were arrested after an accident at 12:20 p.m. Saturday on U. S. Route 42, one and seven-tenths miles south of the Morrow-Richland County line in Morrow County.

Patolmen charged Edward Kostrevic, 30, of Indianapolis with passing at an intersection and Ralph W. Gordon, 34, of Marengo with failing to signal a left turn. The officers reported Kostrevic tried to pass Gordon as Gordon made a left turn.

Moderate damage was done to the right front end of Kostrevic's car and minor damage was reported to the left rear end of the Gordon vehicle.

Both drivers were fined $10 and costs by Mayor Emery Murphy of Mount Gilead.

A charge of failing to stop after an accident involving damage to property was filed against Raymond Fattig, 23, of Galion Sunday night after patrolmen checked the license number of a car found at the scene of an accident Saturday night on a Morrow County road, just south of the Crawford County line.

Patrolmen charge Fattig left his car after it ran into a bridge on the road and tore a railing off the right side of the structure.

Fattig was ordered to appear before Mayor Murphy Thursday. His car was badly damaged in the right front end. Fattig told patrolmen he received a bruised left shoulder but did not require treatment.

The third mishap in Morrow County happened Sunday at 2:15 a.m. on the Waldo-Fulton Road one mile west of U. S. Route 42. A car driven by Zane E. Snider, 18, of Ashley went off the right side of the road, struck a utility pole owned by the Ohio Power Co., broke the pole and knocked down four power lines.

Another car, driven by Herbert Dill, 48, of Mansfield came along behind Snider. The top of the aerial on Dill's car brushed against the live wires, burning off part of the aerial.

Snider's car was demolished in the front end, but the driver escaped injury.

Very minor damage was reported to one of the vehicles involved in the Wyandot County accident Anthony J. Britz, 31, of 820 Bennett St. told patrolmen his car was slightly damaged when it struck the rear end of a car driven by C. Fling of near Centerberg.

Fling left the scene of the accident when he saw no damage was done to his car, according to the patrol reports.

Grandmother Is Veteran Driver

BOONTON, N. J. (UP) — Mrs. Pearl H. Doremus, a sprightly 79-year-old great-grandmother who drove 800,000 miles in 32 years without an accident, advises young motorists never to dispute the right of way.

Mrs. Doremus, who prefers the road to the rocking chair, said driving is lots of fun, but "you have to observe the rules, particularly where the other cars are concerned."

A veteran of 24 cross-country trips, her record should put to rest once and for all the male contention that women are poor drivers.

Her first tour was in 1922, in her first car, an Essex, which she affectionately remembers as a "box on wheels."

She took a trip to Wyoming and got lost. But after 36 hours in the wilderness and traveling over the "most awful country imaginable," she found her way back to the main road.

Other trips were no less eventful. She logged 8,400 miles on her latest jaunt to visit her son in Goleta, Calif. When she returned, she said she felt "wonderful," despite of a doctor's warning before the trip the strain might be too much.

Three times she drove over the Pan-American Highway from Laredo, Tex., to Mexico City, once before the highway officially opened.

In 1929 she followed the territorial boundary and coast lines of the United States but later swung up into Canada, driving as far north on the continent as anyone had ever driven. That point was Prince of Wales Ranch. Log of the trip was 16,000 miles.

Mrs. Doremus, who does most of her driving alone, admits that luck plays a part in driving success, just like anything else. She recalled, for instance, the three times she had flat tires — all in front of gas stations.

Crunchy Ice Cream Sandwiches Last for Days

Want to surprise your family and friends with a brand new dessert? Then here's the recipe for delicious ice cream sandwiched between golden, crunchy layers of shredded rice biscuits, brown sugar, butter or margarine.

Made in only a few minutes, it can be kept for days.

Use:

4½ cups shredded rice biscuits
¼ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1-3 cup butter or margarine
1 quart ice cream

Roll shredded rice biscuits into fine crumbs or put through finest blade of food grinder. Put crumbs and sugar into 10-cup bowl. Mix thoroughly with finger tips. Melt butter. Pour over crumb mixture. Mix until all crumbs are coated with butter. Line a refrigerator ice cube tray with double-thickness of wax paper or with aluminum wrap, letting each end extend about 3 inches so dessert can be lifted out easily when ready to slice for serving. Press half of crumb mixture evenly and firmly over bottom of tray. Pack the slightly softened ice cream over crumb mixture. Sprinkle rest of crumbs over ice cream, packing lightly. Put in freezing unit. Keep frozen until ready to serve. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Davey Jones Locker To Yield Secret of Danish Sea Wreck

COPENHAGEN (UP) — The 200-year-old mysteries of the armed freighter on the sea bottom off the Danish coast of Skagen are nearing solution.

The recent finding of a Russian kopeck coin from 1757 indicates, according to experts, that the ship was of Swedish or Russian origin.

A professional wreck-hunter, Sigurd Damgaard, 59, is doing a detective's job on board his ship, Sankt Georg, assisted by his son, Sigurd, 24, and a diver, Borge Bohus. Beside his investigation on behalf of the museums and historians, he runs his business, fishing from wrecked ships along the Danish coast tons of iron and other metals for sale.

Damgaard, known among fishermen as "the pirate" because, they say, he looks like one, is spending his life exploring wrecks. He knows them all and all about them, and he has made a living out of them for 44 years.

Every day when weather permits, he is fishing materials from the more than 100 wrecks on his list.

"I shall never be out of work," he said. "The seabottom is almost oak-planked by shipwrecks."

The armed freighter now under investigation was hidden for 200 years while the sandy land tongue, belabored by wind and sea, was moving about 1,500 metres from east to west, thus passing over the ship which appeared on the other side.

The ship is not yet identified, but its secrets are being wrested from it, one by one. The kopeck coin is one of the clues that might lead to identification. The 1757 coin, worth about half a cent, bears the initials of Empress Elizabeth of Russia, who reigned 1741-62. In the earlier part of her reign she made war against Sweden, and, as the load of the wrecked ship mainly consists of war materials, experts indicate the ship was Swedish or Russian, probably the latter. It was, however, no warship, more likely a transport carrying fortress equipment.

The shipment includes, besides tons of gun ammunition, dozens of iron-made fire-bombs that have much in common with fire-bombs used by the British Navy during the bombardment of Copenhagen in 1807.

Damgaard has picked up a gun marked "anno 1735" and several other things, all sent to the arms museum of Copenhagen, with which he cooperates without compensation.

According to a story told by several survivors a chest containing gold went down with the ship. Every year Damgaard has inspected the St. George wreck, and this summer he will make an attempt to get into its cabins to seek the chest.

Security From Subversion

Least likely of the Eisenhower administration's recommendations to get under the legislative wire before Congress adjourns is its anti-subversion program.

This is composed of proposals for putting sharper teeth into ways and means of keeping subversives on the defensive. One proposal would call for forfeiture of citizenship by subversives, another for the death penalty for peacetime spies, another for authority to use wire-tapped information as evidence and another for immunity from prosecution by witnesses who now must rely on the fifth amendment to the Constitution to keep from testifying against themselves.

The reason for the dim prospect of enactment for these measures is the wide variance of opinion on their merits among representatives and senators. Altough all members of Congress may be assumed to have an equal interest in security from subversion, most members of Congress at the present time have broad reservations about security proposals that might backfire if adopted.

A recent proposal in the House of Representatives calls for setting up a study commission of 12 members to make recommendations for future action on security from subversion in industry. This has been getting favorable attention from congressmen who feel that security from subversion calls for a more systematic approach than has been made so far.

No one questions the need for anti-subversion laws. The threat from the Communist conspiracy is no longer debatable. But the laws, when adopted, should be comprehensive and fool-proof. Otherwise, they would have no effect other than to create a false sense of security.

Moscow Called the Turn

If some of the current events now making news could be described with the benefit of historic perspective, they would leave these impressions:

Events in Indochina would leave the impression that Moscow called the turn and the western allies, disgruntled and inclined to be peeved at one another, danced as gracefully as they could.

While it was said at the time to be Peiping that was giving orders about a surrender in Indochina which would be called a truce in France, Britain and the United States, the fact was that Moscow dictated via Peiping the terms of a victory for the Communist conspiracy in southeastern Asia, just as previously it had dictated via Red China and North Korea the terms of a victory for the conspiracy in Korea.

This would be confirmed as Moscow called the turn in other quarters of the world where there were no Red Chinese or any other kind of Chinese places like Tunisia, French Morocco, Guatemala, British Guianea and scattered points in the Near East.

To a remarkable extent, Moscow's initiative in these matters was concealed from popular view at the time by elaborate descriptions of measures to offset its incendiary trouble-making. But the fact remained constant throughout this trying period in international affairs that the conspirators of Communism were setting fires under Moscow's orders wherever anything flammable could be found throughout the world and that the anti-Communists kept putting out as many fires as they could, subject to their own inability to agree on whether to beat them out with sticks or drown them out with showers of cooling appeasement.

Politics or Economics?

If Congress could work out an agricultural price-support policy in terms of economics, there would be no question about making supports flexible. It has been shown beyond any shadow of a doubt that inflexible supports at a high level have the effect of subsidizing overproduction. Producers raise price-supported crops for no better reason than to take advantage of support prices.

Thus, the question that the U. S. Senate must decide as it debates the farm bill is whether or not to make an economic or a political decision. The compromise would be a decision half economics, half politics, the kind made by the House of Representatives on July 2 when it approved a scale of price supports sliding from 82½ to 90 per cent of parity.

The absurdity of limiting the range to 7½ percentage points is revealed by the fact the original law containing a parity provision set the range from 52 to 75 per cent of parity. By 1948 the range had been moved upward from 60 to 90 per cent of parity. But befor this formula evet could be applied, Congress changed it from 75 to 90 per cent. The 1948 law will go into effect automatically if Congress cannot agree on another temporary formula to satisfy the politics of the situation at the expense of the economics.

It is a good guess this may be the outcome of the Senate's farm bill debate — that President Eisenhower will veto a bill containing little or no flexibility and thereby get the advantage of the 75 to 90 per cent range in the 1948 which is effective automatically at the end of 1954, unless Congress postpones it.

Security Clearance

By James Marlow

Sensitive Federal Jobs Require Thorough Check

WASHINGTON — "Q" clearance, name check, full field investigation, evaluation, top secret, security risk, confidential, all government names for deciding who can stay in a government job or be trusted with secrets.

There was national shock when atomic scientist Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer lost his "Q" clearance, although the Atomic Energy Commission didn't use that phrase when it parted company with him.

It just said he was a security risk, that he couldn't be trusted any more with secrets he had been handling a dozen years. "Q" clearance is the AEC's way of saying a man has been found trustworthy with AEC secrets.

In Oppenheimer's case it had been found he had a long and continued association with Communists. Another man could be dropped as a security risk even though he didn't deal in secrets at all but drank too much.

And there is a difference in the degree of secrets. One kind, of the most vital nature, is labled top secret. A less important one is "secret." And a still less important one is "confidential."

FOR EXAMPLE, a "confidential" document might be an FBI report of its investigation of a man against whom nothing wrong was found. But if the report got into Communist hands it might disclose "investigative techniques" of the FBI.

Officials in any agency dealing with matters involving national security decide who can be allowed to see "top secret" documents, who should see only "secret material" and who needs to know only "confidential" matters.

That "need to know" position is at the heart of security in agencies dealing with information vitally affecting the national welfare. For example, a public relations man in the AEC would have to be cleared to know some information.

But there might be no reason why he should be let in on a decision to make bigger or smaller hydrogen bombs. He'd be allowed to handle only information that he needed to know to do his job.

Before a government employe gets into a position of handling any secrets at all — or no secrets — he's supposed to be investigated. The government doesn't check on all its employes in the same way.

For example, this would be routine for a man in a job in an agency which doesn't deal in national secrets, like the Labor Department:

Jones wants a clerical job with the Labor Department. He fills out an application on which he lists for some previous years the jobs he held and the places he lived. In addition, he answers questions about subversive organizations to which he belonged, if any.

In a case like that — a man looking for a nonsensitive job (no secrets involved) in a nonsensitive agency — the Civil Service Commission's own investigators make a check.

They check with his previous bosses, perhaps with his old landlords and neighbors. They run a "name check" with the FBI. That is, they find out whether the FBI has any record on him or information against him. The same check is made with the Army and Navy and House Un-American Activities Committee, which keeps an extensive file on subversives, either real or reported.

IF JONES then is not found to be an habitual drunk, or homosexual, or criminal, and if he has no suspicious history or connections with Communists, he can get the job.

But if doubtful information is turned up against him, then the FBI can be called in to make a full field investigation, which means an investigation since the day he was born.

In the AEC where all jobs are considered "sensitive," although some are more sensitive than others, a more thorough check than the routine civil service investigation is supposed to be made.

When all the investigations are finished, one thing remains:

Since some derogatory information is bound to turn up against anyone thoroughly investigated — either factual or spiteful information — agency officials have to evaluate it to determine whether a man can see secrets or not.

Piggy-Backing

By TRUMAN TWILL

Biggest of the new wrinkles in transportation this year is the "piggy-back" method of hauling truck trailers to their destinations on railroad flat cars. One train crew can take charge of a whole retinue of trailers this way, taking them to distribution points without traffic headaches. All major railroads are taking it up as rapidly as they can prepare the facilities, which do not have to be much more elaborate than those used for years for loading and unloading circus trains.

Not being in the trucking business or the railroad business, I would regard the whole thing as nothing more than an interesting idea, except for a possibility that suggests itself. The possibility is that railroads ultimately may branch out and offer a similar service for passenger-car tourists one day soon. That would be worth waiting to see. I am a potential tourist, if they ever figure out a way to eliminate all the useless riding and driving.

"Piggy-backing" would be like driving an automobile on to a ferry boat and enjoying the scenery en route. Except that a "piggy-back" tourist would never leave dry land. There he would be, high and dry in his Studebaker 8 on the deck of a flat car, looking at the scenery while the engineer up front took charge of chewing up the distance.

The tourist could ride all night, either sleeping in his car, or taking life easy in a sleeping car attached to the "piggy-back" train. He would have his choice of eating his own fried chicken and bananas and throwing the bones and peelings out on the railroad right of way, or living it up sumptuously in a railroad diner.

The point is, there are parts of almost every tourist's journey which could be made more logically and more pleasantly on a railroads right of way than they could be made by public road. And a further point is that for tourists who want to get where they are going with maximum safety and minimum energy, an overnight journey in their own automobiles by "piggy-back" train would be logical and probably more economical than buying a nights lodging.

Everybody has been saying for years that the railroads' big trouble has been lack of imagination, taking the industry as a whole. More accurately, their trouble has been lack of financial leeway, due to excessive regulation by bureaucratic chowderheads with no interest in keeping the railroad industry alive and healthy.

The trucking industry has nothing to fear in the long run from "piggy-backing" because if it works it will speed up distribution of goods that sometime or other in their movement from producer to consumer must be handled by truckers. In the long run, the truckers would have something to gain because — in the long run — long-distance shipping by "piggy-back" would clear the roads for more efficient operation of short-run trucking.

And if the idea spread to passenger-car tourists, it would go even farther to relieve highway congestion. In 10 more years if I cant load my own automobile on a flat car and rattle off to the Golden West painlessly a la piggy-back, going it on my own only after arrival at the points of interest, I shall write a crisp letter of criticism to every railroad president listed in "Whos Who."

Wisecracks Don't Solve Power Problem

By Raymond Moley

SACRAMENTO, Cal. — I have two newspaper clippings, one of which I found in an Oregon paper, and the other in a California paper in the course of a trip I have taken down the coast from the Northwest.

The first is an account of an interview given by Adlai Stevenson on Saturday, July 3 in Portland. The second is an account of a speech that he made at a Democratic rally in Eugene on July 10. There were stories in the newspapers about him between those dates, well illustrated by Adlai fishing, sitting, crossing streams on logs, and in other positions indicating something less than a serious exercise in mastering the problems of state.

In fact, his one quip in the interview was, "To the victor belongs the toil." This was supposed to mean that it has been Eisenhower who has been working since November, 1952.

There are some who would be captious enough to question this inference concerning the victor. There can be little doubt about the easy life of the loser—especially after an examination of the two clippings to which I have referred.

IN HIS INTERVIEW on the 3rd Stevenson said that he intended to take advantage of his visit to Oregon "to learn something about both sides of the power question."

He gave assurance that he would learn enough before his speech six days later to offer some important conclusions for the guidance of the country and his party, and for the winner of the 1952 elections who has been struggling with the matter ever since.

Presumably Stevensons instructor in the promised seminar was Richard L. Neuberger who is candidate for the seat now held by Sen. Cordon. Of course Neuberger is committed to one side of the question, but that apparently would make him the ideal instructor in this instance.

So, on the 10th, Stevenson drew his conclusions. They were a denunciation of the Presidents power policies.

Five days of fishing, sitting, and crossing streams on logs convinced him that the Eisenhower administration was moving "with menacing swiftness against our traditional and time-tested program of public resources conservation."

OUR POLICIES, he said, amount to "a drastic change in what has been virtually a bipartisan natural resources policy for almost half a century."

I believe that no one who has seriously studied the question of private vs. public power will deny that it involves as complex a series of problems as anything that faces the country. I have struggled with the details for a good many years, in the course of which I have repeadly visited the West and talked with a great many people about the question.

There are involved many sciences. There are engineering, accounting, chemistry, law, and others.

Unfortunately one of the ingredients is the so-called science of politics, and therefore reason and common sense have long since been absent from political discussion of the subject.

It is ridiculous to say as Stevenson said, that there has been a bipartisan policy on natural resources for 50 years. Fifty-two, not 50 years ago, Theodore Roosevelt secured the passage of the famous Reclamation Act. For the remainder of his life, in speeches, articles, and books, he claimed political credit for himself and, at times, for his party.

HOOVER, WHO as an engineer knows more about this problem than any other public figure in our time, worked out in his biggest project, at Hoover Dam, an excellent partnership plan. Hoover himself immediately pointed out that Stevenson in three specific instances grossly misstated the facts concerning the Hoover policies.

It would have required only a scanning of the record to have avoided this injustice. The fact is that Hoover, in a speech in 1926 in Seattle foreshadowed the whole idea of basin development.

TRs Democratic cousin, FDR, went along with George Norris and Harold Ickes far toward the socialization of all power.

Now Eisenhower is trying to restore some local responsibility and an equitable carrying of the burden.

This problem cannot be solved by slogans or wisecracks. That salient fact Adlai failed to learn on his vacation.

3 Senate Races in Nebraska

The nation's political spotlight is on Nebraska — for it has three U. S. Senate races this year.

Gov. Robert B. Crosby (R), Rep. Carl T. Curtis (R), and former Democratic Rep. Terry Carpenter (R) are in a seven-man race for the Republican nomination for the six-year Senate term. Three men, including former Gov. Keith Neville (D), are seeking the Democratic nomination.

For a "short-short" term from November to January to fill a vacancy left by the death of the late Sen. Dwight Griswold (R), there are 16 Republicans and three Democrats in the political sweepstakes.

A freshman Congressman, Rep. Rowan L. Hruska (R) of Omaha holds the Republican nomination to fill out the remaining four years of the term of the late Sen. Hugh Butler (R), who died July 1. Former Rep. Howard H. Buffett (R) failed in a last-hour attempt to get his name on the ballot, and July 6 withdrew a court test after losing the Republican nomination to Hruska in balloting by the Republican State Central Committee. Nebraska Democrats nominated James F. Green, Omaha lawyer, to oppose Hruska.

Among key figures in the races are:

Gov. Robert B. Crosby. A 43-year-old resident of North Platte elected in 1952, Crosby has appointed two senators within a space of three months. His appointments went to Mrs. Eva Bowring, veteran vice chairman of the GOP State Central Committee, to fill Griswold's seat; and to Sam W. Reynolds, Omaha businessman, to fill Butler's seat.

Ex-Rep. Terry M. Carpenter. A 54-year-old Scottsbluff businessman, Carpenter served in Congress as a Democrat from 1933-35, later ran unsuccessfully as a Democrat for governor and for the Senate, was an Eisenhower delegate in 1952 and is now trying his luck running for the Senate as a Republican.

Rep. Carl T. Curtis. Dean of the Nebraska Congressional delegation at 49, Curtis has represented the First (southern) Nebraska district for 16 years, and is a member of the potent Ways and Means Committee where he has been particularly interested in social security legislation. He is a native of Minden, Neb., and is a lawyer.

Rep. Rowan L. Hruska. Born of Bohemian extraction in David City, Neb., Aug. 16, 1904, Hruska has been an Omaha attorney since 1929, and served on the Board of County Commissioners of Douglas County from 1944-52, when he was elected to Congress. He is a member of the House Appropriations Committee. His House seat in the Second District, once held by Buffett, went Democratic in 1948.

A Congressional Quarterly survey shows that Curtis and Hruska have voted similarly during the single term (1953-54) they have served together in the House. Both have supported the Eisenhower administration about 75 per cent of the time on roll-call votes. Hruska has voted with his party somewhat more often than Curtis, and his voting participation — actual yea and nay voting on roll calls — has been a little higher.

The Houghton-Merkel Co. was organized under the laws of the state of Ohio Dec. 1, 1901. In the early 1900's the company wholesaled and retailed all kinds of vehicles and farm implements, its specialty being the building of high grade buggies and delivery wagons. It also operated a general buggy repair shop.

The company employed 30 skilled mechanics and did an annual business amounting to $60,000. Officers of the company were W. H. Houghton, president, L. W. Ireland, vice president and Charles E. Merkel, secretary-treasurer.

Russia's claim that her boy, Bakhchivanzhi, was the first pilot to fly a jet airplane doesn't seem to square with the known facts, but it's probably true that he is the first, and maybe only, pilot named Bakhchivanzhi to fly a jet airplane.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

They're Off—For the Kiddies

Two Texas oil barons prooose to buy six of the biggest race tracks in America and run them for the benefit of underprivileged boys. The goal is worthy, but the result could be an operation for overprivileged race tracks. It sounds something like operating a chain of night clubs and honky-tonks to aid deserving mothers. Or getting the better gambling clubs under one tent in the interest of the girls' clubs.

Horseracing is legal is one of the top American sports and has some fine people associated with it, but it has never been accepted in the American home as a character builder, a public benefactor and Little Willie's best friend. The suggestion that the kiddies should now clap hands for it in anticipation of the day when they could say "I owe everything I am to the two-dollar window" is meeting with something less than national cheers. It is hard to think of mommer ever saying "I don't know how I would have raised Junior without those horse tracks, big gamblers and men who take the money for baby's shoes and put it on the nose of a twenty-to-one shot."

Rockabye baby in the tree top
All will be well, tink mommer and pop,
If things go bad child never be blue
Horse tracks galore will look after you.

We view this with alarm. The smallfry may grow up believing the bugler's "Boots and Saddles" is a companion tune to "Home, Sweet Home" that the starting-gate is a substitute for the door of opportunity and that the keystone of family welfare is to be "found in the cry "They're off!"

A kid can come to manhood taught to associate the horse park with the Fairy Godmother, the Friend in Need and the Good Neighbor. With a chain of race tracks his benefactor it even will be possible for a youngster to ask mummie: "To what track do I address my Santa Claus letters?" and chirp, "Mommer, the Jones boy told me Santa was not fit for the distance this year and was only a sprinter. Is that true?"

It seems to this column that it is just a step from the race track proposal to a suggestion that bingo be organized to fight juvenile delinquency and that all the crap-shooters in the country be put under one tent in a movement to see that baby gets plenty of cereals.

Don't get us wrong. It could be a great thing to use millions from race tracks to help the kids but it still sounds odd at this point.

Clint Murchison and Sid Richards are oil barons with so much money they don't know what to do with it. (They just "bought" a big railroad to help underprivileged proxy holders.)

They say 90 per cent of all money from the six race tracks would go to the children. While admitting this would be wonderful, we still can't picture George Washington's parents taking kindly to a suggestion that if he didn't turn out okay after the cherry-tree error the Manhattan Cocktail bottlers of the land would look after him. (And how would Lincoln's folks have reacted to the word, "Don't worry. The gamblers of America will pool their receipts and make life easier for Abe")

Either this is a screwball age or we are a screwball thinker. Maybe both. But we want to be fair. Perhaps the idea of the $2 horseplayer ever going broke for a good cause is not to be sneezed at. Maybe the best possible answer to "What's good" is "The underprivileged kids of the U.S.A."

The search for the officer who tipped a senator off on what he considered a threat to America's security will be relentless, Secretary Stevens announces with emphasis. . . . By the way, how did the search for the officers who made things so soft for that Army dentist ever come out?

News of Other Years

40 YEARS AGO — Funeral services were scheduled in Crestline for John Hunter, 25, of Cincinnati, formerly of Galion and son of Mrs. F. I. Conyers of W. Center St., who drowned while swimming with a party of friends at the YMCA summer camp on the Miami River at Tower Hill, Cincinnati.

20 YEARS AGO — C. Carl May of 233 E. Walnut St., boys work secretary of the Marion YMCA, accepted an offer to become secretary of the Portsmouth O., YMCA.

The price of milk in Marion was to be raised one cent to 20 cents a quart beginning Saturday.

Signs of rapid return to normalcy were observed on all sides as San Francisco and Oakland began shaking off the headache of a general strike.

Injuries suffered Saturday night when he walked into the side of a moving automobile proved fatal to George Morise, 45, of N. State St.

10 YEARS AGO — A key bastion on the German's southern front — the great sea port of Livorno in northern Italy—fell to the Americans as Allied offensives gained momentum on the two other major land fronts in Europe.

President Roosevelt unexpectedly entered the Democratic vice presidential scramble, inspiring the withdrawal of war mobilization Director James F. Byrnes and reportedly listing second and third choices to Henry A. Wallace.

The newest addition to Marion County's largest family arrived when a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Cochran of three and one-half miles south of Marion on the Prospect Pk., the seventeenth child born to the couple.

Nearly 2,000 American heavy bombers and fighters attacked a large array of railroad yards and airfields in southern Germany.

Six Russian armies poured through huge holes in Hitler's eastern front—from Marshal Ivan S. Konev's new 125-mile-wide break-through on the south to Gen. Andrei Yeremenko's drive into the Soviet Latvian republic on the north, now 20 miles inside the border.

Age of Actress Favorite Topic For Mexicans

MEXICO CITY (UP)—Guessing the age of ageless Dolores Del Rio is a favorite pastime in this city, especially since everyone seems to come up with a different answer.

The beautiful dark-haired actress, who was making pictures in Hollywood 29 years ago, isn't anxious to solve the dilemma.

"I am as old as I look," she said smiling. "Long ago, I tried hard to forget the date. I think that I have now forgotten. How old do you think I look, anyway?"

To look at her, you'd never guess she was a Hollywood contemporary of Blanche Sweet and other forgotten stars. Neither time nor tropical sun has been able to put a line on her unblemished skin or mar the symmetry of her body.

"I do not have a secret formula," she said. "I do not diet very much and I do not exercise unduly. Therefore, I am as old as I should be."

"Old as I should be" is anybody's guess.

Those biographies which list any birthdate at all, report she was born Aug. 3, 1909, in the northern Mexican state of Durango. Yet there are many who are willing to wager their last peso that she's well past the 50 mark.

And the records of one of Mexico city, largest newspapers, "El Universal," list the controversial date as Aug. 3, 1905.

One eminent writer speculated recently that Mexico's number one film actress may be well past 60!

Not long ago, Miss Del Rio appeared at an elegant diplomatic ball dressed in a black lace evening gown, transparent enough to put her in competition with Marlene Dietrich. Pop-eyed diplomats weren't sure whether to call the police or applaud enthusiastically.

A Dolores Del Rio picture still is a "must" for the majority of Mexican film fans. She still is this country's idol.

Just when she will quit the screen, nobody knows. No Mexican film producer worth his salt would even suggest such a thing, since her pictures make money. Besides, they feel it's up to her to decide.

It's a Man's World

OAKLAND, Calif. (UP) — Jean Whittaker, who lives and works in a man's world, says women are losing their footholds in one occupation, even as they gain in others.

Jean, a native of Winona, Minn., is an airways operations specialist for the Civil Aeronautics Administration at the airport, the only woman in an office that employes 15 persons.

Jean says during World War II there were many CAA women radio operators, but since that time their number has diminished greatly.

Most have married, retired, or left the service for other jobs and have been replaced by men.

Texas Has Smart Styles

THEY HAVE A WAY with clothes, deep in the heart of Texas.

Out of the growing garment industry in Dallas are coming some of the smoothest and smartest fashions you'll be seeing in the shops this fall.

Typical of the fashion business of the Southwest is Justin McCarty, big, booming and breezy, who looks more like a cattle baron or an oil millionnaire than a manufacturer of dresses. But he is a pioneer of the Texas fashion industry, who likes to talk about the trading post days whether he remembers them or not.

RIGHT: A 3-piece outfit with gray jersey blouse, darker gray flannel skirt and hound's tooth checked cardigan.

The kind of clothes McCarty turns out are the kind preferred by the women of Texas, and the kind approved by women all over the country who like the casual, understated look. You'll find no fussiness in these Texas styles—no unnecessary buttons and bows. Instead you find simplicity of line, beauty of fabric and a knowing use of subtle colors.

These are cosmopolitan clothes, at home anywhere in the world, but they have the stamp of Texas in their uncluttered lines, their casual ease and their precise tailoring.

When you've seen them you'll agree that they do things well down Texas way.

Empty Capsule Used in Latest Medical Tests

the latest developments of the atomic age is a capsule that any patient would swear was empty.

Actually, it contains a minute amount of radioactive iodine, so little it cannot be weighed.

Dr. Donalee L. Tabern of Abbott Laboratories said the radio-iodine comes from one of the nuclear reactors at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

The capsules are being used in basal metabolism tests, he said, and provide more accurate results than older methods.

Tabern said Abbott has devised a method of introducing into each capsule an unweighable and invisible amount of radio-iodine, which clings to the capsule's inner wall.

Actually, he said, it would be easier to put the radio-iodine into a milk-sugar powder, but if the capsule were broken the radio-active powder would spill.

Spilling would not be harmful to the doctor or patient, Tabern said, but it would "contaminate" the laboratory and render tests inconclusive.

The metabolism test works on the principle that the thyroid gland, which controls metabolism, absorbs iodine. By measuring the amount of iodine absorbed, a doctor can tell whether the thyroid is functioning normally.

With the radioactive capsules the test is simple, Tabern said.

A patient swallows a capsule and the next day the doctor trains a device similar to a Geiger counter on his neck.

The device, known as a scintillation counter and 100 times more sensitive than the Geiger counter, picks up and measures the radiation from the patient's thyroid, and tells the physician how much of the iodine was absorbed.

To make the test accurate, the doctor must use two capsules. Tabern said, because radioactivity diminishes with time.

All of the capsules in each bottle were produced at the same time and are equally radioactive at any given moment.

To make the test, the doctor places one "pilot" capsule in a lucite cylinder, roughly the diameter of the average human neck. The patient swallows a second capsule.

The doctor later trains his counter on the lucite cylinder, or "phantom," and finds out how much radioactivity would be left in the capsule swallowed by the patient.

Then by training the device on the patient's throat, he can determine what percentage was absorbed by the thyroid.

Tabern said that at present the capsules are distributed principally to hospitals and research clinics. He said they are useful in detecting tumors of the thyroid, and in checking the results of thyroid surgery.

The distribution of the capsules involves rush shipments, often by air, because of the diminishing factor in anything radioactive. The "half-life" of radioactive iodine is eight days.

Motored Tricycles Newest Travel Aid

DJAKARTA (UP — A milestone in public transportation was passed in Djakarta recently when gas-powered betjaks (tricycles) made their appearance.

To the sentimental, they meant the passing of an era; to the modern-minded, progress; but to most residents of this crowded city, just another traffic hazard.

Thousands of motorless betjaks roam Djakarta's streets by day and night. Sweating men and boys pedal determinedly, pushing in front of them on a wide seat loads ranging from five persons to huge cakes of ice.

Pedestrians always complained that the gaily-decorated tricylces were hard to dodge. Now a few of them are harder because their resourceful owners have attached small gas motors and turned them into motor-bikes.

Most residents think the only good thing about these machines is that there are so few of them.

But in the transportation field, it's the motor scooter that is fast running away with the race.

More and more of the squat little scooters show up each day. There are more power-driven bicycles and motorcycles than scooters, but the latter are by far the most popular.

You have to wait six to nine months to buy one, because of the shortage. But you can get one immediately, if you pay the black market price.

The CIA

By George Sokolsky

Espionage is a technique of statecraft, ancient, complicated, deceptive, which only experts can handle and experts in espionage are rare. The Central Intelligence Agency is an espionage and counter - espionage organization, authorized by Congress and functioning for for all branches of the government in foreign relations. It has no function inside the United States and is not, and ought never to be, a competitor of the FBI or the Secret Service or any other domestic investigative or law enforcement agency.

SOKOLSKY

In the course of its existence, it has been headed by three competent and well-informed men, Adm. Roscoe Hillenkoetter, Gen. Walter Bedell Smith and the incumbent, Allen Dulles. The latter was in the OSS and has been continuously engaged in this work since World War II.

·:·

THE OSS WAS more or less thrown together during World War II by Gen. William Donovan, presently our ambassador to Thailand. It was not well-organized or correctly manned in the circumstances because there was no prior experience in the United States with precisely this kind of organization.

We had Army G-2 and Naval Intelligence and State Department reports, but we did not have an office for organized espionage. Unquestionably the OSS accepted too many Communists in is personnel, although it has been proper espionage practice, in special circumstance, to employ the double-agent, that is, a spy who works for both sides.

The funds of an espionage organization must be secret and hidden; otherwise each discussion over appropriations would uncover the operations to the advantage of the enemy. Whenever public funds are secretly disbursed, a prospect for corruption exists.

This is a hazard in espionage work that cannot be avoided, particularly in foreign operations, the disclosure of any segment of which could result no only in the spies being caught and killed, but in the disruption of "systems" established at great cost in time and money.

For example, it may be necessary to establish a system, the objective of which is to steal enemy codes, to check against fraudulent codes being planted, to watch for new codes as they come into existence. This is dangerous work. When the Russians or their satellites who engage in it are caught, our practice is to expel them from this country.

THE BEST MEN and women for such work are cold professionals who do it principally for money. Such people are rarely involved in the type of emotionalism which leads to disclosures.

Payment for such work, successful or unsuccessful, comes very high because the risk is death. And every phase of this work must be secret. The spy's name, his address, his nationality must never be disclosed. If a country is careless about that, no professional will ever work for it. He can sell his wares elsewhere without similar risks.

In the old days, before World War II, such dealers in documents preferred to work with the British, even if the United States was the ultimate repository for the document, because the British knew how to keep their mouths closed and their eyes open.

A congressional committee investigation into espionage, even if held in executive session, is unsound.

Granted that the CIA is very imperfect because it is too young and still has some OSS leftovers not only in personnel but in methods; granted it is offensive to Americans to expend public funds without disclosing to the last penny how they are spent; granted that no administrative agency of government should be independent of congressional control — espionage ipso facto requires violations of normal public procedures because its essential characteristic is secrecy.

IF IT IS public policy to have no secrets, it means that the United States has to be without an espionage or a counter-espionage organization.

On the other hand, some experts in espionage do believe that the time is ripe for a revaluation of the CIA, its methods and its procedures.

The appointment of Gen. Mark Clark to do this job for the Hoover Commission is a perfect one. Gen. Clark understands the work and he is one of the most forthright of our military men.

Sen. Joseph McCarthy wisely decided, when Gen. Clark was appointed, to forego his own investigations and to turn over to Gen. Clark whatever data his investigators have gathered on this subject. I am sure that Allen Dulles will cooperate with Gen. Clark.

Lausche Violates Law, Rhodes Says In Campaign Blast

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—James A. Rhodes, Republican candidate for governor, yesterday accused Gov. Frank J. Lausche of giving state jobs to paid political workers in violation of state law.

In an address over radio station WRFD at nearby Worthington, Rhodes listed 21 men whom he said are employed by both the state highway department and as officials of various county Democratic central or executive committees.

Rhodes said these "political hacks" hold jobs in both the state department and in political organizations in violation of the laws of Ohio.

GALION FARMER HURT

GALION — Ellis J. Moose, 31, of near Galion, was seriously injured when he fell while wiring a barn on his farm Friday. He dropped about 18 feet and landed on a fence. He apparently fell when a high lift on his tractor, being used for elevation and support, gave way. He suffered a fractured pelvis and head injuries and was admitted to City Hospital for treatment.

Early symbols of chivalry were square flags and only in later times were flags of a greater length than width adopted such as those used in modern times.

Fire Practice Put Off in Kansas City; Weather's Too Hot

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — The Fire Department has given up its plans to burn some houses today for practice. Weather is too hot.

Firemen were given the job of burning 11 houses to clear a right-of-way for a new street. They could get some fire-fighting practice while doing so.

They burned two, and Fire Director Louis Spandle said that was enough—until the weather cools off.

The temperature climbed to 111 yesterday.

Optimistic on Aid

Burke, Bricker Studying Ohio School Funds Issue

By JAMES B. SIBBISON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's two senators—Republican John Bricker and Democrat Thomas Burke—rarely talk to each other.

About a month ago, Burke told a reporter they had only chatted together once since he came to Washington. That was the day Burke was sworn in.

They did, however, get into one argument. That was on the floor of the Senate, when Burke, in his only speech there, tried unsuccessfully to defeat a gas rate bill sponsored by Bricker.

Both Bricker and Burke were on the same side of a question this past week, but operating separately.

Should Program Continue

The question was whether the federal government should continue spending money on school construction near defense installations.

Bricker and Burke wanted this program continued, particularly in the area around the Southern Ohio atomic plant, where school crowding is bad.

Burke jumped in late in the spring with a bill—his first—asking that the program be extended. Oveta Culp Hobby, Secretary of Health Education and Welfare, greeted this idea with silence.

Then Commissioner of Education Samuel Brownell flatly told Burke it was "too late." In short, the Administration was prepared to let the program die, pending a study on the subject next year.

As a final shot, Burke wrote senators of 24 states needing further school aid, asking their support.

Takes Different Tack

While this was going on, Bricker's office let it be known Bricker was definitely interested in helping the schools near the Ohio A-plant. But his aides made it clear he was not going to back Burke's bill.

So Bricker took a different tack. He had his aide, John McElroy, telephone Brownell. Brownell, said McElroy, promised to review the department's position.

The call seemed to have helped, he said. By the time a hearing was held last week on Burke's bill and one sponsored by some New England Republican senators, Brownell had changed his mind.

He told the Senate subcommittee on education, headed by Sen. Cooper (R-Ky), the department now favors extending the program. Both Bricker's office and Burke's think the program has a good chance.

Odds and Ends

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

Leaves from an oddity almanac: It is only people who are mentally half-dead themselves who complain, "opportunity is dead." Opportunity is timeless.

Take the case of Mrs. Annabelle McIntyre of Ligonier, Ind., who decided at 82 she ought to have a new hobby, and learned to make braided rugs. Ten years and 200 handmade rugs later she has turned her hobby into a tidy business, and at 92 she does her own shopping, cooking and housework, and is sturdily determined to go on doing these things "as long as I live." How many teen-age girls in your neighborhood are that independent?

ALMANAC Conservation Department: What smokers do to themselves is one thing, but what they do to the forests remains a national disgrace. Forest fires last year dropped to a record low but still 154,160 forest fires burned over 9 million acres, and more than one out of every seven fires were started by careless smokers.

Bet You Didn't Know That; one way to lose weight is to go to the Equator, because of slightly lowered gravity a man who weighs 190 pounds at the north pole will be a pound lighter at the equator. The British have discovered a "paint of death" that will rid ships of cockroaches for as long as two years. Many schizophrenic (split personality) children often show a preference for toys that can be rotated or spun. But if that were the only test of a schizophrenic, every kid in town would have a split personality.

Time-Marches-On Dept: "Nothing ever changes," people say—in a world that is changing as swiftly as they are. But look back just 20 years at a few things the world lacked that are now commonplace: Jet planes, nylon, television, penicillin. Our idea of a real old-timer is a guy who can remember when aspirin was a wonder drug.

—:—

ALMANAC EDITORIAL: We have been informed by what we take to be a reliable source that the Sahara desert is creeping northward at the rate of 20 miles a year. (Or maybe it is 20 miles every century—we have mislaid the clipping).

In any event we demand to know what Congress intends to do about this creeping African menace. Are our statesmen asleep at the switch? We pause for reply.

It's-A-Woman's-World Dept: The effort to relieve ladies from the strain of 20th century civilization never ceases. The latest feat of gallantry that has come to our attention involves a department store—Thalhimer Brothers, Inc., of Richmond, Va. It is now offering free showers to weary out-of-town lady shoppers.

The pipe industry also is courting milady with dozens of new feminine styled pipes. The one that fascinates us most is a long curved clay pipe, to be worn with lounging pajamas of a matching color, that is said to be ideal for puffing purposes while watching television. Somehow we had never thought that watching television required any particular style of pipe, and intend ourselves to go right on puffing a cigar.

But the pipe tycoons agent altogether forgeting the male trade. They have come out with a new chinrester model for men with false or weak teeth. It has a specially curved stem that puts weight on the chin.

Of course, if you have a receding chin, as well as weak teeth, there is another smoking gadget on the market. It is called a cigarette.

Basic Wealth

By George Humphrey

Victor Riesel is on his way to Europe to cover vital labor news breaking in that area. Today, while he is en route, George Humphrey, secretary of the Treasury is substituting for him as guest columnist.

More and better jobs are something that we must have in America. We must have them for the good of all citizens in this growing economy. We must have them to provide the security of our nation.

What this administration has been trying to do and is determined to do is to help the economy make more and better jobs.

Now, what makes jobs?

In the first place, somebody has to have an idea for a product which can be developed and sold and thus provide jobs for people making and selling the product.

For instance, who had heard of television, say 25 years ago? Very few of us. Somebody invented something. It resulted in a product which somebody thought could be sold. They went ahead and developed it and made it and then went out and sold it. This resulted in the growth of factories to produce television sets, stores throughout the country to retail them and all sorts of people selling and servicing the sets.

Hundreds of thousands of people thus have new and good jobs because of a product which wasnt even thought of by most people 25 years ago.

THE POINT is you couldn't sell a television set until somebody made one. You have to produce something in order to start the cycle which results in new and better jobs.

Now, why is it that we have such high wages as we do in America? There is a simple reason. Nobody over an extended period can get more than he can earn. High wages are possible in America only because individual productivity is being continually increased.

The American's hands are no better than the hands of a savage when it comes to producing things with just two hands. American hands can produce 10,20,100 times more than the hands of a savage because we have developed means of putting more power and tools into an Americans hands.

Because of this power and these tools, the average American can produce so much more. Because he can produce more, he can earn more. Because he can earn more, he can have more of the things of good living.

And he can also provide the things which this country needs for its security.

The American can't have this greater power in his hands unless somebody has invested the money which will provide that power and, for most jobs, thousands of dollars worth of tools, and equipment.

For instance, a news reporter once told me that all he needed for his living was a lead pencil, a pad of paper, and the ability to ask questions.

LET'S SEE HOW wrong that is. Think of all that went into making that reporters pencil and paper. Somebody had to cut trees in the forest. Somebody had to build pulp mills. Somebody had to build railroads to haul the products of the forests and the pulp mills in order to provide the paper on which the reporter wrote.

They also had to provide newsprint for the reporters presses. Somebody had to build the factories which manufacture the presses and linotype machines which make printing possible.

Somebody had to provide the newspaper plant, the trucks and other means of transportation which carry the printed newspaper out to its readers.

The reporter had to have all those things back of him in order to get paid for what he wrote. Without these things, without the investment of individuals who saved and made these things possible, the reporter writing his news story would not be worth much. He would earn very little, for there would be no market for his story.

There is no job in America that doesn't require the investment of large amounts of money. That is a cardinal point that every worker in America must remember when he is thinking about what is good for himself and his future.

We must think about this point particularly when we think about taxation and ways that taxes can be cut.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S tax program this year will make effective tax cus totaling 7.4 billion dollars — the largest dollar tax cut in any year in the history of the nation.

So taxes have been cut for everybody in America, and cut very substantially. But even more important to an American than a tax cut, is his job and the prospect for a better job. The administration's tax program is going to help preserve and improve that job.

The only way to really have more and better jobs is to help people produce more and so earn more. Just stimulating consumption will not increase employment in any solid fashion. We discovered this with relief spending during the 1930s. (And in none of these years from 1933 to 1940 did unenmployment go under the 7,000,000 mark.)

To really create more and better jobs, you also have to stimulate the people who buy heavy goods. You have to stimulate the people who have saved and who will invest in projects to make heavy goods like generators and turbines and machinery and tools. It is money that somebody saved that buys these heavy goods — and new goods, like new factories to make new television sets, and new inventions of new products by the score that do not even exist today.

We need to stimulate more investment in America and incentive for invention, research modernization and expansion of our economy all along the line.

This administration is determined to see that the basic things in America are allowed to live and grow so that the America of the future will not only be better but ever stronger.
